RESTRAIN OFFICIALS FROM COLLECTING PROPOSED RATES

'Insurgents" Take Granted Injunction in Decision Handed Down by Judge Shirley

NEW RATE "EXCESSIVE"

Circuit Court Upholds Contention that New Rates are "Excessive, Oppressive and Unreasonable"---Other Suits in this State May be Dismissed

APPEAL TAKEN BY OFFICIALS

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., NOV. 22.—'Insurgent" Modern Woodmen of America won a signal victory in the circuit court today, when Judge Robert B. Shirley issued a perpetual writ of injunction restraining officers of the order from collecting the increased assessment rate ordained by the head camp, Jan. 23, 1912. The court based his decision upon the contention of "insurgents" that the new rate is "excessive, oppressive and unreasonable." He did not sustain the assertion of the complainants that the by-law authorizing the new rate was passed without the required two-thirds vote in the head camp.

Since the society is organized under the laws of this state, the decision of the circuit court here is binding upon the entire one million two hundred thousand members of the order in whatever territory they are located. Suits of a similar nature now pending at Galesburg and Galena, Ill., and at Hastings, Neb., will not affect the issue, whatever their outcome may be. It is considered probable by attorneys for the "insurgents" that these suits will be dropped.

Not Necessary or Just.

On the question of necessity for the increase and of its justice to members of the order the court says:

"The increase in the table of rates was radical and extreme to all the members." He then cites that since 1903 the rate of members of the age of entry at 54 years (taken as an example) was $1.50 per $1,000 for each assessment or $4.50 for each assessment upon a $3,000 policy. The present by-law increases this rate to $3 per $1,000 and provides for an assessment every month whereas nine or ten assessments have been made annually heretofore. This increases the assessment of members of the age of 54 years from 340 to 500 per cent, the court declares.

"It is not claimed there is any present necessity for a raise in the rates, nor does any appear," the opinion continues: "With the present rate and an average of assessments less than twelve a year the society had accumulated in the benefit fund on December 31, 1911, $9,073,501.19, by means of the assessments producing more than the fund required, while in the general fund there were $660,933.44. The accumulations have not decreased but have continually grown."

Further Evidences of Prosperity.

As a further evidence of the prosperous condition of the order, the court pointed to its phenomenal growth since its organization 28 years ago, and the fact that, in that period of time, it has paid to beneficiaries of its deceased members $105,000,000.

"With this record of achievement," the court adds, "it is clear that the society is in no danger of insolvency in the near future. The time may come when the mortuary list may grow by reason of the advancing age of members until the present rate is inadequate, as testified by the experts in this case, but this contingency and the rate to be fixed will depend upon the continuous growth by new blood, lapses and other incidents. The evidence of experts shows that the mortality rate is as low or lower than that of any other insurance company by reason of the high moral and physical standard of its membership and the care and prudence used in the admission of new members."

Judge Shirley adds that the statute authorizing a surplus fund contemplates the accumulation only of such a surplus fund as will insure the ability of the order always to meet its obligations. The proposed change in rates in the Woodmen would produce from $15,000,000 to $20,000,000 surplus yearly, according to estimates given the court.

The court is of the opinion no such accumulation was contemplated by Sec. 8 of the statute, and that for this reason, the rate fixed by the by-law is excessive and an unreasonable burden upon complainants and all members of the society and not binding upon them," he says in this connection.

Can Be Approximately Equitable.

Acknowledging the difficulty of distributing the burden of support of a fraternal society among its members, Judge Shirley said, however that it can be so distributed as to be approximately equitable to members of all ages. He defined the duty of a member of such a society as ending with the payment of his just share of the expense of meeting the obligations of the order, and said:

"If it becomes necessary to readjust the rates it should be done gradually and only as necessity requires and not in such degree as to be an unnecessary and unreasonable burden upon the members.

"He should not be assessed to create a surplus for the benefit of future generations of members. Such a society is not an old line insurance company, dealing at arms length with its policy holders and while, as already said, the rates of the society may be raised if necessary to create a surplus reasonably necessary to pay its bendficiaries, it is not to be commercialized in effect from a fraernal benefit society into an old line insurance company. The rate fixed by the by-law is but slightly less for ages ranging from 20 to 70 years than the table for old line insurance companies fixed by the National Experience tables."

Continuing, the court said that the readjustment of rates and the creation of a surplus fund should be undertaken deliberately by the membership of the body.

Will Consider Plan of Action.

Rock Island, Ill., Nov. 22.—The executive council of the Modern Woodmen of America at an adjourned meeting at the head offices here tomorrow will consider the course to be followed in dealing with the decisions of circuit Judge Shirley at Springfield, Ill, restraining the society from puting into effect Jan. 1, 1913, the rates adopted by the society's legislative body at Chicago last January.

Major C. W. Hawes, the society's head clerk, in commenting on the council's probable action, said;

"We will have full advices from our legal counsel tomorrow as to the terms of this decision. We will, of course respect the order of the court while it remains in force, but the case will be carried to the court of last resort, and we fully expect an ultimate decision affirming Judge Shirley's opinion that the society's by-law changing the rates was adopted regularly and iby the necessary two-thirds majority and that the society had the right to make any necessary and reasonable advance in rates, but over-ruling his decision that the advances made were unreasonable and unnecessary."

To Appeal Immediately.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 22.—Speaking of the decision of Judge Robert Shirley, at Springfield, Ill., today in which a perpetual injunction was granted restraining the head camp enforcing the increased rates of the society, Head Consul A. R. Talbot this afternoon declared that the head officers of the Modern Woodmen of America would immediately take steps to appeal Judge Shirley's decision to the appellate court in Illinois in an effort to have the injunction suspended.

Meanwhile, Mr. Talbot said no effort would be made on the part of the head officers to put the new rates into effect. They were to have become effective January 1.

Do Not Doubt Final Outcome.

Rock Island, Ill., Nov. 22.—C. W. Hawes, head clerk of the Modern Woodmen order, after receiving the ruling of Judge Shirley, said:

"We are not at all in doubt as to the final outcome of these rate suits and since even Judge Shirley has held that the head camp in making these changes proceeded legally, the higher courts in this case at least now will have an opportunity to pass exclusively on the point of whether the new rates as adopted were necessary to enable the society to meet its prsent assumed obligations. On that point, the evidence is overwhelmingly one way, and we are sure there will be a verdict for the society in the end.

"Whatever change in procedure it may be necessary for the society to take temporarily because of this decision of the Springfield circuit court will be decided by the society's executive council which adjourned its regular monthly session to meet again within the next few days."

M'MANIGAL TELLS ABOUT DYNAMITE CLEAN UP WORK

Testifies That McNamara Threatened to go to Chicago and Blow up Detectives' Headquarters—Joseph Schwartz Charged With Intimidating Witness Arrested.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 22.—Explosions on non-union iron work in Milwaukee, Omaha and Springfield, Mass., were explained by Ortie E. McManigal at the "dynamite conspiracy" trial today as having been done by him shortly before he and James B. McNamara arrived in Detroit to "clean-up" that city, and were arrested with suit-cases filled with dynamite.

Would Blow Up Detectives.

McManigal said he told James B. McNamara that detectives were after them and that McNamara declared that if he saw any more of the detectives he would go to Chicago and blow up their headquarters. Several days later McNamara was arrested.

McManigal also told of the destruction of an unloading hoist at Milwaukee, the court house at Omaha, and the tower in a group of municipal buildings at Utica, N. Y. Joseph Schawrtz, who was arrested today charged with attempting to obstruct justice by intimidating Cornelius L. Crowley, of Monica, Pa., a witness, was locked in jail after a preliminary hearing before a United States commissioner.

NATIONAL PRESS ASSOCIATION.

Chicago, Nov. 22.—The National Press association will hold its next annual meeting at Colorado Springs, Colo., June 15, 1913. The western city was selected as the meeting place by the executive council of the association here today.

THOUSANDS SEEK MURDERER OF GIRL

ATROCIOUS CRIME IS COMMITTED NEAR LITTLE ROCK, ARK.

Body of Cirl is Discovered Chopped to Bits---Whole Town Closes Business to Join in Search for Perpetrator of Crime.

Little Rock, Ark., Nov. 22.—Posses led by bloodhounds are searching for the murderers of Miss Mary Barnham, 17 years old, whose mutilated body was found today in the vicinity of her home near pleasant Ridge. Miss Barnham was the daughter of a wealthy farmer. Yesterday she mounted her horse and rode to the postoffice. Her failure to return resulted in a search and the body was found this afternoon. Her head and legs had been chopped off and her body severed. There is no clew to the identity of the murderers.

Thousands Join Search.

Two thousand residents of Boone county led by Charles S. Burnham, father of the girls, searched for the murderers today. Merchants in many of the towns and villages closed their stores to aid in the man hunt. Parts of the body of the girl still are missing. Her death is believed to have been caused by a blow on the head with an axe, after which her assailants chopped the body to pieces. Portions of the body had been strewn on the ground some of them being found fifty yards from the spot where the girl was killed.

The motive for the crime is unknown.

GIBSON'S FATE IN HANDS OF JURY LATE MONDAY

State and Defense Bring Case to Close—Counsel Will Sum Up Monday.

Goshen, N. Y., Nov . 22.—The jury tonight has all the evidence save that of one witness to be introduced at the trial of Burton W. Gibson for the murder of his client, Mrs. Rosa Szabo in Greenwood Lake, last July. When the state and defense closed their case this afternoon, Justice Tomkins told the jurors to go home till Monday when counsel will sum up. The fate of Gibson, it is expected will rest with the jury late Monday afternoon.

Five witnesses for the defense and seven for the state the latter called in rebuttal, testified today. Among the state's witnèses were three called to discredit the testimony of Thomas Garrison the fisherman who recovered Mrs. Szabo's body. He had testified that he twisted her neck, raised her head and then pushed down her chin on her breast, these three witnesses, his companions at the time, swore that they saw him do no such thing. The defendant's witnesses called at the forenoon session included two physicians who testified that the position of the organs in Mrs. Szabo's throat could easily have been assumed after death, especially if the body had been treated as Garrison testified. Dr. Henry W. Cattell of Philadelphia testified for the defense that it would have been impossible for a man to have throttled a woman, as Gibson is charged with having done, without leaving finger prints on her throat.

There were no marks found on her throat.

WOMEN GAMBLERS ARE ARRESTED IN CHICAGO.

Detectives Raid Gambling House on South Side and Take Hysterical Dames Into Custody.

Chicago, Nov. 22.—Information given by an angry husband whose wife spent her time and his money in an alleged gambling resort instead of remaining at home and performing household duties, led to a raid on a handbook on the South Side today.

The keeper of the place, and eight women, five of them gray haired, were taken into custody.

So busy were the women gamblers that none heard detectives pick the lock of the door and they were in ignorance of the presence of the police until one of the latter announced that the inmates were under arrest.

This announcement was followed by hysterical screams from the women, two of whom fainted.

One of the women offered to bribe the detectives to allow her to go. Mrs. Maggie Brown, 40 years old, who weighed 300 pounds, refused to walk down the stairs from the second floor and was carried out by the police.

Columbus, O., Nov. 22.—The case against Cecelia Farley, charged with shooting Alvin E. Zollinger, will go to the jury about noon tomorrow. Attorneys for the defense late today completed their arguments and Prosecuting Attorney Turner will sum up for the state tomorrow.

VICTIM OF FOUL PLAY.

Chicago, Nov. 22.—Charles Stanley, 31 years old of Los Angeles, was found on a railroad track tonight with a bullet wound in his head. He was removed to a hospital in a serious condition.

Stanley is a circus performer. He refuses to tell how the shooting occurred.

COME TO AID OF LABOR MEN NOW ON TRIAL

FEDERATION ASKS UNIONS TO RAISE MONEY FOR DEFENSE

Will Aid In Defense of Alleged Dynamiters on Trial in Indianapolis—Would Repeal or Amend Sherman Anti-Trust Law.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., NOV. 22.—The American Federation of Labor decided today to ask the unions affiliated with it to raise money for the defense of the alleged dynamiters who are on trial in Indianapolis.

The resolution adopted by the convention was "that the delegates to the convention of their return advise their international unions and local bodies to provide financial assistance for the trade unionists on trial at Indianapolis to aid them in securing a fair trial and in appealing the cases should fair trial be denied them."

The resolution also urged that the men on trial be "not convicted in advance or the decision in their cases be influenced "by the alleged fact that certain corporations and a private detective agency" are clamoring for a conviction."

In was decided by a vote of 15,761 to 1,322, more than the two-thirds majority required to revoke the charter of the International association of Steam and Hotwater Fitters and Helpers, delegates from which were denied seats in the convenion last week. The convention also refused to take any action in the dispute between factions of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers and re-affirmed its decision that only the faction affiliated with the federation is legal. Other resolutions adopted favor the initiative, referendum and recall, including the recall of judges, popular election of United States senators, workingmen's compensation with the retention of employers liability, old age pensions and the repeal or amendment of the Sherman anti-trust law to prevent the prosecution of labor unions under its provisions.

Rochester, N. Y., Nov. 22.—Andrew J. Gallagher, representative of the California state federation of labor, raised the question of financial aid to the men on trial in Indianapolis. He offered an amendment to the report of the committee on president's report providing that the balance in the McNamara defense fund be devoted to the defense of the Indianapolis defendants. His amendment was rejected by the chair on a point of order that the money in question is in the custody of the McNamara defense committee and therefore not at the disposal of the federation. The report of the committee of president's report was adopted without amendment and directly afterward James B. Conroy of the International Brotherhood of foundry employes presented the motion urging inland local labor bodies to give financial assistance to the accused men. The motion was odopted without a dissenting vote. The president's report committee defined the attitude of the federation in the so-called 'dynamiting" cases including the McNamara cases, in these words:

"The American labor movement as reported in the American Federation of Labor will neither contenance nor condone any one who, under the cloak of trade unionism, undertakes to carry on a criminal warfare on society. That some of these men are guilty of carrying on such a warfare appears from the confessions they have made relative to their connection with these crimes. That every man must be considered innocent until he has been proven guilty has always been accepted as a fundamental principle of our jurisprudence, and in the consideration his case before the courts he is entitled to a fair and impartial trial.'

By a special order of business agreed upon today, the convention will elect officers at 3 o'clock tomorrow. Max S. Hayes of Cleveland, a member of the International Typographical union, is to opose President Gompers for re-election.

ASSISTANT TREASURER RESIGNS

Washington, Nov. 22.—Gideon E. Bantz, connected with the treasury department for forty years, resigned as assistant treasurer of the United States today at the request of Secretary MacVeagh. He will be succeeded tomorrow by Christian S. Peace, chief of the division of banks, loans and postal savings.

Secretary MacVeagh said the change was made because Mr. Bantz was not in sympathy with his administrative policies. Mr. Bantz, it is said, will be offered a position of responsibility in the treasury department.

START ON TRIP TO NEW ORLEANS.

St. Louis, Nov. 22.—Tony Jannus and William Tefts left at 3:10 o'clock this afternoon in a hydro-aeroplane in a flight which they expect will end at New Orleans. They will follow the course of the Mississippi river. Their first stop will be Chester, Ill., barring accident. A hydro-aeroplane in which Jannus flew from Omaha to St. Louis was burned yesterday but he has obtained a new machine.

BOYS GUILTY OF MURDER.

Janesville, Wis., Nov. 22.—Harry L. Berger and Edward Meyer, 17 and 19 years old, respectively, were today found guilty by a jury of the murder of Tilly Bergsterman, who was killed September 30. The boys were found guilty of murder in the third degree and will be sentenced next Mo

FIGHT LORIMERITES FOR SPEAKEESHIP

OPPOSE ELECTION OF ALL WHO VOTED FOR LORIMER

Democratic Members of the Illinois House of Representatives Sign Resolutions Regarding Election of Next House Speaker.

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., NOV. 22.—Firing the first gun of a fight to prevent the election to speakership of the Illinois house of any man who voted for Lorimer and approving the plan to place committee power in the hands of a committee on committees similar to that of the national house the Democratic members today drew up and signed the following resolutions:

"In the organization of the house of represenatives we pledge ourselves not to support any man for speaker who has been in any way identified with or known to be in sympathy with such election or measures. We regard the candidacy of such as a challange, an affront to the moral sense and decency of the electorate of the entire state.

"Further, We pledge ourselves in favor of taking the power of committee appointments from one man, the speaker, and place such power in the body of the house where it rightfully belongs in Democratic government and in harmony with the action of the congress of the United States. On this platform we invoke the aid and co-operation of all the members of the legislature, the press and the people of the state of Illinois.

(Signed)

"John Houston, 32nd district.
"Edward F. Poorman, 34th district.
"James M. Bell, 45th district.
"W. A. Hubbard, 38th district.
"John Richardson, 40th district.
"W. A. Groves, 30th district.
"W. E. Finley, 48th district.
"John Coleman, 10th district."

The above is considered tantamount to open defiance of the speakership candidates of Lee O'Neil Browne, John J. McLaughlin, Thomas Gorman and Martin J. Dillon, Democratic aspirants, and all of whom are recorded as voting for Lorimer.

Dunne Non-Committal.

Chicago, Nov. 22.—Governor-elect Edward F. Dunne today refused to take sides in the contest among Democrats for the speakership of the house. Mr. Dunne made his position plain when visited by Representative Thomas N. Gorman of Peoria, Democratic candidate for Speaker who had said he would withdraw in favor of any man whom the administration might favor.

The governor-elect told Mr. Gorman that he would not aid him or other candidate.

"I hope they will elect a good, clean, progressive Democrat for speaker," said Mr. Dunne, after his conference with Representative Gorman. I am desirous that the speaker shall be some one whose past record will not be inimical either to myself or to the party. I will not in anyway interfere with the speakership fight."

OUTCOME IN CALIFORNIA IS STILL BEYOND PREDICTION

Progressives in Western State Are Fighting for Roosevelt's Plurality Outside Los Angeles.

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 22.—Seventeen days after the national presidential election the question whether Wilson or Roosevelt carried California was tonight in a worse tangle of legal complications and threatened law suits than at any previous time. The outcome is beyond prediction.

Progressive leaders disappointed by a court decision in Los Angeles invalidating totals for electors in precincts where the election judges had thought to save time and trouble by not putting down tally marks for an elector except the top one on each ticket took heart today and decided to institute like proceedings in all the counties of the state which showed a plurality for Wilson.

This prospective action was announced following receipt in Los Angeles of an earnest telegram from Governor Johnson at Sacramento beginning "It is reported in the press here that the Progressives are going to quit."

The telegram urged the contrary attitude.

Secretary of State Jordan reiterated today his declaration that if the recount in Los Angeles county ran over November 25th, the date provisionally set by law for certifying returns from the state as a whole, he would wait until Los Angeles county reported. In this, he is understood to have the support of an informal opinion from the attorney general's office.

INDIANA CELEBRITIES WILL DINE.

Chicago, Nov. 22.—Vice-president-elect Thomas Marshall and former Vice-president Charles W. Fairbanks will be guests of the Chicago Indiana society at its annual dinner Dec. 7. Mr. Fairbanks is to publicly advise Mr. Marshall on "how to be a vice-president."

Other Indiana celebrities will take part in the after dinner program of the society.

INDICT ROADS FOR REBATING

THREE SUBSIDIARY LINES OF N. Y. CENTRAL INDICTED BY GRAND JURY

Indictments Grow Out of Payment of $60,000 to Coal Compapny for Which No Proper Accounting Was Made to the Government.

CHICAGO, NOV. 22.—Three subsidiary lines of the New York Central railway system and a Chicago coal corporation were indicted today by the federal grand jury charged with giving and receiving rebates.

The companies named in the true bills are:

The Lake Shore & Michigan Southern Railway company.

The Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis Railway company.

Chicago, Indiana & Southern Railroad company.

O'Gara Coal company.

The indictments grew out of the payment of $60,000 by the railroads in the latter part of November, 1909, to the coal company for which no proper accounting was made to the government. The investigation into rebating charges that have been made will continue. Charges, it was said, against higher officials of the New York Central lines is said to be the object of further inquiry by the federal grand jury.

The allegations made under the act of February 19, 1903, known as the Elkins act, prohibiting the receiving and giving of rebates.

The government alleged that officials of the railroads own and control in names other than their own, concern stock in the O'Gara Coal company.

The O'Gara company operates mines at Harrisburg, Ill., in Saline county. Shipments from the mines to Danville, Ill., of coal are especially mentioned in the indictment, it being charged that the railroads gave, and the coal company accepted, rebates on the invoices of the shipments

A specific charge is made that $10,000 was paid to the coal company by the several railroads on Nov. 27, 1909, on a shipment made in inter-state commerce with lower rates than are in the tariff and schedules as recorded with the commission. Other details charged as rebates are payments on Nov. 27, 1909 of $10,000 by the Lake Shore; $8,500 by the Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis, and $885.83 by the Chicago, Indiana & Southern railroads.

Summons commanding the appearance of representatives of the railroads and the O'Gara Coal company were issued today.

JOHN SCHRANK COMMITTED TO NORTHERN INSANE HOSPITAL

Man Who Shot Roosevelt Declared Mentally Unbalanced — Protests That He is Sane.

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 22.—John Schrank, who shot Theodore Roosevelt on the night of October 14, in Milwaukee, is insane and was late today committed by Municipal Judge A. C. Backus of the Northern hospital for the Insane near Oshkosh, until cured.

In the event of his cure Schrank is to be returned to court for a further proceeding as provided by law. Failure in effecting a cure of Schrank's mental disorder means that he will spend the balance of his life in the asylum to which he has been committed. Commitment was pronounced following the presentation of an exhaustive report by a comission of five alienists in which the defendant was unanimously adjudged insane, the examination by District Attorney Zabel of the five physicians.

On being led back to jail to await preparations for the trip to the asylum, Schrank said:

"I had expected that they would find me insane because it was in the papers two days ago. I want to say now that I am sane and know what I am doing all the time. I am not a lunatic and never was one. I was called upon to do a duty and have done it.

"The commission has sworn away my life. Each member went upon the stand and said I was incurably insane. They can do what they want with me now. They can bury me alive if they see fit. I don't care what happens now."

WAR SITUATION REMAINS UNCHANGED

No Progress Made in Efforts Toward Peace in Balkans

WORK FOR COMPROMISE

Opinion in London is that Powers are Working for Acceptable Compromise

TUSKS APPEAR TO AWAIT BID

LONDON, NOV. 22.—The efforts towards peace in the Balkans made no visible progress today. Exchanges of artillery fire and infantry reconnaissances produced along the Tchatalja lines and Nazim Pasha the Turkish commander-in-chief in a despatch to Constantinople claims that an infantry battle occurred in front of the center of his position and that the Bulgarians left several thousand dead before the Turkish outer works. No credence is placed in this report, however.

Elsewhere in the war zone the military situation remains unchanged. The Servian forces advancing toward the Adriatic are meeting with hardships in the barren mountainous country which is buried deep in the snow, and the allies are still harrassing what remains of the Turkish army that was driven from Monastir.

The Bulgarians have occupied the important town of Dedeaghatch, the terminum of the Saloniki railway on the sea.

The Turkish cruiser Hamedieh came into port at Constantinople today damaged from a Bulgarian torpedo. The Turkish claim that the cruiser sank two of the Bulgarian torpedo boats with which she was engaged yesterday, has not been confirmed.

The peace negotiations are believed by the diplomats to have only been suspended by reason of Turkey's refusal to accept the first offer of the allies and to them the Turkish position appears to be one of awaiting expectantly for another bid. The best opinion in London is that a compromise will be accepted between the belligerents and that the powers are using their good offices behind the scenes with this end in view. Reports from Sofia say that Turkey's rejection of the proferred terms for an armistice occasioned no surprise there. Three Bulgarians, representing the three northern kingdoms, have started for the front with the expectation of meeting the Turkish peace plenipotentiaries. The Greek military attache with the Bulgarian army will join the Bulgarian plenipotentiaries. A cessation of hostilities is not necessarily expected to follow the departure of the repesentatives of the allies on the mission of peace.

Whatever basis for an armistice may be reached, it is expected that it will leave in abeyance for the negotiation of a peace treaty, the amount of territory Turkey eventually will be permitted to retain. The compact, it is believed, will include Bulgar's renunciation of intention to enter Constantinople.

Reports emanating from Vienna announce that the Albanians will proclaim their independence tomorrow at Durazzo, from which place the Servians are within a five or six days march, and that there will be a joint Italian and Austrian naval demonstration off that port. The visit of the Austrian crown prince to Emperor William which is officially stated to be for the purpose of keeping a long-standing shooting engagement and a Berlin despatch saying the Australian field marshal, Count Von Moltke, chief of staff of the German army, keep alive speculation concerning the plans of the triple alliance.

No diplomatic secret was ever better kept than the terms of the Balkan alliance, but the signs of possible differences over a division of the spoils are cropping out. The Greek semi-official press claims that the war would have been greatly different except for the immense services of the Greeks, in preventing 200,000 Turks from Asia Minor joining the army in Thrace. The claim also is made that the Greek army and the fleet have accomplished as much as the three other allies combined.

Russia and Servia on Defensive.

According to Chronicle's Vienna correspondent three classes of the Austrian reservists have been called out. About 300,000 men he says, have massed around the Servian frontiers and equally steady preparations are going forward in Galicia.

"It is reported tonight that the Don Cossacks have been mobilized and that the Russian authorities are holding all available rolling stock on the lines running to the Austrian frontier," says a despatch to the Daily Mail from Vienna.

"Five large bridges spanning the Danube here have been closely watched since yesterday. The sentries have been doubled in order to prevent and tempering with the bridges. On the whole safety depends on the railway communica-

CHRISTIAN CHURCH REVIVAL.

The revival services at Central Christian church Friday evening were attended by a large crowd and the pastor preached a very forceful sermon from the subject: "Repentence". In his sermon he answered the question: "What is repentence? How do we get it? How long does a man have to repent to be accepted?" Mr. Darsie concluded his sermon with a description of the city of Ninevah when Jonah went there with the message "Yet forty days and Ninevah shall be destroyed and the whole city come to its knees." At the beginning of the service there was one baptism and at the close of the sermon two went forward. Misses Cora Graham and Beulah Carter sang solos and the work of the chorus under the leadership of J. H. Henderson was excellent.

There will be no service at the church this evening. Mr. Darsie has announced his subject for Sunday morning as "The Glory of Jesus," and Sunday evening, "Christian Baptism."

MISSIONARY UNION ELECTS.

The annual meeting of the Missionary union was held Friday afternoon at the Christian church. A large number was present and listened to a very helpful and inspiring program. Mrs. J. W. Miller of Grace church led the devotional exercises and gave many helpful thoughts. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved and the report of the nominating committee was made. Miss Helen Jones sang a beautiful solo and Mrs. Thornberry told of the object of "Home Mission Week" and also told what the Christian church is doing along the lines of home missions. Miss Nettie Hayden told of the Baptist work, Mrs. R. A. Gates of the Methodist work and Mrs. Charles Glossop of the Congregational work. These reports were followed by a helpful address on the need of the work by Mrs. Mary Carriel. Mrs. Marques, who has done missionary work in Honolulu, gave a very interesting talk and Miss Cora Graham gave a splendid solo. Following the meeting a social hour was enjoyed when tea and wafers were served by the ladies of the church.

The election of officers resulted in the choice of the following:

President — Mrs. Mary Thornberry.

First vice-president—Mrs. R. R. Stevenson.

Second vice-president—Mrs. J. J. Reeve.

Secretary—Mrs. George Hocking.

Treasurer—Mrs. A. P. Vasconcellos.

HELD OYSTER SUPPER.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Woodson Christian church held a very successful oyster supper Friday evening at the residence of Mrs. Charles Taylor in the Asbury neighborhood. Peoria began arirving at the residence shortly after 5:30 o'clock and kept coming until about 8 o'clock. Quite a neat sum was realized by the society which will be used for the benefit of the church. The committee in charge of the affair was composed of Mrs. Charles Harney, Mrs. Charles Ezard, Mrs. John Henry and Miss Olive Woodson.

TO HAVE BANQUET.

The Phi Nu literary society of the Woman's college will have a banquet this evening at Colonial Inn.

CANNON'S TOE WINS CONTEST

KICKS PRETTY GOAL FROM THE 28 YARD LINE.

Bloomington Outplayed Locals in First Half But J. H. S. Came Back Strong in Second Half—Back Field Stars in Jacksonville Lineup.

"Well placed."—Shakespeare in Henry 5.

The Bard of Avon came almost describing the wonderful drop kick by Cannon on the 28 yard line, Friday afternoon on Illinois field, which won the football honors for J. H. S. from Bloomington High school, by a score of 10 to 7. It was a battle royal, with Bloomington outplaying Jacksonville in the first half and the red and white coming back in grand fashion in the last half. When Bloomington carried the ball down the line for a touchdown in less than eight minutes after the ball was snapped, it looked as though J. H. S. was doomed for another defeat. It was only in the last half of the second quarter did the locals begin to put ginger into their playing and they soon found that the Bloomington line was not so strong as first anticipated. Bloomington from the jump found a big hole in J. H. S.' line and they ploughed through the aperture for big gains. Hurst, Albee and Prather played a fine game for the visitors, while Whitsell was splendid in spots. Jacksonville's back field got down to real business before the game was over and they received the glad hand from the crowd. The work of Reeve at times bordered on the sensational order, and he proved an artful dodger. Cannon's wonderful drop kick on the 28 yard line was the play of the afternoon and saved the day for Jacksonville. It was a big chance and the hard working little player took the chance. He also had a difficult angle from which to kick for the first goal but proved equal to the task. The only bobble in the entire game was after Cannon tried a second drop kick. Hurst of Bloomington got the sphere after it had gone over the goal line and ran for 30 yards. The ball was not touched and therefore became a touchback and should have been put in play on the 20 yard line. Bloomington men played till the last ditch and the contest was hard fought throughout.

First Half.

Bloomington started the game by kicking off to Jacksonville. Reid receiving ball and carrying it back only a short distance. Cannon made a gain of five yards when quarterback McGinnis fumbled the ball, which was picked up by a Bloomington man. McGinnis was replaced by Maddox and Johnson took Maddox's place at end. Hurst punted for Bloomington, Burdick making a fine catch of the oval. J. H. S. resorted to a punt and Bloomington tried a forward pass which failed. Albee made a pretty gain of fifteen yards followed by a punt, Reeve carrying the ball back 10 yards. Burdick made another gain of 10 yards and a fumble by Reid gave Bloomington the ball. Skaggs made a short gain on an end run and two forward passes were incompleted by the visitors. Bloomington punted and Reeve gave an exhibition of dodging in carrying the ball back. Bloomington got possession of the ball on a fumble and this was followed by some terrible line plunges by the visitors. Albee was pushed through the center for a good gain and Whitsell followed the play by a couple of line bucks and the ball was within two yards of goal when the first quarter ended. Goals were changed, when the visitors shoved Prather over for a touchdown. Goal was kicked, making the score 7 to 0.

Bloomington again kicked to Jacksonville and Reid made but little gain in returning the ball. Bloomington tried an end run but the play was broke up by Burdick. Prather made a consistent gain through the local's line and a forward pass being unsuccessful the visitors tried a punt which was picked up by Cannon. Jacksonville tried two forward passes but failed in the attempt. By a succession of end runs by Cannon and Reeve, Jacksonville worked the ball down to within eight yards of goal when time was called for the first half.

Second Half.

Jacksonville took on new life in the second half. Bloomington kicked off, Jackson receiving. Reeve started the quarter off by a ten yard gain, which he followed up by another good end run. After Cannon had made another gain of six yards Jacksonville resorted to a punt, the ball being received by Hurst. Bloomington returned the punt and Reeve carried the ball back for five yards and followed it up by another gain of 15 yards around right end. A forward pass failed and Jackson punted. Bloomington punted back, Cannon receiving ball. Hall at this point taken out and Kolp put in. Jacksonville seeing a goal in sight began to play stubbornly. Reeve started the fireworks by a center plunge of ten yards. This was followed by three good gains through Bloomington's line, Jacksonville almost losing the ball on a fumble. With only 24 seconds to play, Reeve was shot across the line for a touchdown and Cannon kicked a good goal, making the score 7 to 7.

In the last quarter Bloomington kicked to J. H. S. with only ten seconds to play the ball stopped on the 41 yard line in the possession of Jacksonville. Goals were exchanged. In working a forward pass Haigh was hurt and replaced by Briscow. Jacksonville punted, Bloomington chasing the oval back 10 yards. Maddox made a pretty stop of Prather, who was almost getting away in a clear field. Jacksonville got the ball on downs. Cannon, Reeve and Reid came in for their share of honors in making good gains, Burdick followed up the play with a forward pass. Jacksonville tried a couple of forward passes without success. By hard playing with Reeve making good gains, Jacksonville got the ball to within two yards of goal, when Bloomington held them for downs. Bloomington punted out poorly, Reeve getting the ball. After two line plunges, Cannon fell back and kicked a pretty goal from the 28 yard line, netting the locals three points, making the score 10 to 7.

Bloomington kicked off to Jacksonville and Reid received the ball. Jacksonville punted. Bloomington tried a forward pass but Reid intercepted. Reeve was knocked out of breath in a line plunge and Hall took his place. Jackson made a big gain around Bloomington's left wing for 15 yards. Cannon again fell back and attempted a drop kick from the 25 yard line but failed. Hurst picked the ball up and ran 30 yards with it and was downed by Burdick. At this junction time was called.

The following was the line-up:

B. H. S.	Position.	J. H. S.
McMurry	r. e.	Burdick

SUFFERED BROKEN ARM.

Marjorie Ruth McMurphy, the ten year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson McMurphy of West College avenue, had the misfortune to break her left arm Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. She had been down to Academy hall taking a music lesson and was returning home on her skates. In trying to get out of the way of an automobile she slipped and fell with the above result. The arm was broken between the elbow and wrist and the member was set by Dr. Carl E. Black.

VACATION AT I. S. D.

Supt. Gillett of Illinois School for the Deaf has announced a Christmas vacation this year extending from Dec. 21 to 29. This is something new at the School for the Deaf as in the past there has been no Christmas holiday save December 25th. This year however pupils whose parents can afford to have them come home will have the privilege of going. As a good many of the pupils will have to remain here there will be school sessions each day and the teachers will divide the time so that all will have at least a few days of rest and recreation.

BRIDGE NEARING COMPLETION.

Work on the large concrete bridge being built over Mauvaisterre creek just south of Routt street by the Burlington railroad company, is being pushed by the men in charge and it is expected to have it completed in two weeks. This bridge is of solid concrete and is built wide enough to allow a double track to be built on it. It has a fifty foot arch over the brook and is a very well built structure. When completed and the second track is laid it will give the Burlington a double track from this city to Pisgah.

S. S. CLASS MEETS.

The Sunday school class of the Murrayville M. E. church, taught by Mrs. Maggie Hanback, held a social in the church parlors Friday evening. There was a large crowd present and the evening was delightfully spent. Light refreshments were served.

The Clio Circle of the Literberry Christian church will give an oyster supper at the church tonight.

BITTEN BY DOG.

While making his delivery Friday, Charles Cully, of the firm of J. F. Claus Tea company, was severely bitten on the leg by a dog. He went to a physician, who dressed the wound, and nothing serious is expected to develop.

Mrs. Grace Austin of Cincinnati is at Russel & Lyon's for one week demonstrating Buick process of gold and silver cleaning. Call and see her.

MISS WHITTAKER PAINFULLY BURNED.

Miss Fern Whittaker, who resides at 512 South Church street, was painfully burned while at work at Capps' factory Friday. Miss Whittaker started to pass between one of the machines and the wall, when the operator, not noticing her, started the machine and she was pushed against the hot steam pipes at the side of the wall and pinioned there. It was some moments before she could be freed and her limbs were very painfully burned. She was taken to her home where from last reports she was resting easily.

MRS. LESH TO WITHDRAW PLEA OF GUILTY

Lawyer Says Woman Who Confessed Murder Will Contest Case—Uncle From This County on Way to Sedalia.

Sedalia, Mo., Nov. 22.—Instead of making a plea of guilty when her case is called in court, it is probable that Mrs. Pansy Ellen Lesh, who confessed at Los Angeles to the murder of two Missouri women, will contest the case, according to George F. Longan, counsel for Mrs. Lesh.

Attorney Longan said tonight that he expected to confer with Mrs. Lesh tomorrow and that in spite of previous talk, her attitude may be changed. He said he believed the woman could not be convicted.

Sheriff Henderson today received messages from Louis Luttrell of Jacksonville, Ill., uncle of Mrs. Lesh, who said he would arrive tomorrow to lend all possible aid to his niece. He is a farmer and said that he wanted Mrs. Lesh to make her home with his family in the event that she is acquitted or paroled.

Mrs. Lesh had intended to return to Los Angeles to her 2-year-old son. Tonight she said she may reconsider after a conference with her uncle.

One of Mrs. Lesh's relatives here received a telephone message Friday saying that she had been released from custody but this could not be confirmed last night.

TAFT APPROVES DESIGN OF MEDAL FOR CAPTAIN ROSTRON

Emblem Bears Graven Thanks of Congress to Gallant Captain Whose Bravery Saved Survivors of the Titanic.

Washington, Nov. 22.—President Taft today approved the choice of the fine arts commission for the design of a gold medal to be presented to Captain Rostron of the Cunard liner Carpathia for his heroic services in saving the survivors of the Titanic disaster.

The accepted design bears on one side a bas-relief head of Captain Rostron encircled by the words "To Arthur Henry Rostron," the thanks of congress for heroically saving the 714 survivors of the Titanic in mid-ocean. On the reverse appears a bas-relief scene showing two sailors in a life-boat casting a line to a man just about to sink beneath the sea. On this side also appears the date of the rescue, April 15, 1912.

The medal will be presented to Captain Rostron by President Taft on some date in the near future yet to be decided.

OFFICIAL COUNT IN MISSOURI.

Jefferson City, Mo., Nov. 22.—Woodrow Wilson carried Missouri by 123,338 votes over President Taft and polled 427 more votes than Taft and Roosevelt combined, according to the official count made public today by the secretary of state.

Major, Democrat, for governor had 119,300 votes more than McKinley, Republican, and 10,154 more than the combined vote of Republican and Progressive candidates.

MISS HINRICHSEN IS PAINFULLY BURNED

Well Known Young Woman Has Narrow Escape From Serious Injury When Millinery Catches Fire From a Lamp.

Miss Annie Hinrichsen was painfully burned Friday evening at her home in Alexander. Miss Hinrichsen spent the day in Jacksonville and went to Alexander on the train due here at 6:15 but which was an hour late. After reaching her home Miss Hinrichsen sat down without removing her hat and while talking to her mother a celluloid ornament on her hat ignited from the lamp on the table. The flame was communicated to the rest of the trimming in a flash and the whole hat was a mass of fire. Miss Hinrichsen tore the hat off as speedily as possible and her mother also came to her aid. However, in time required to take out the hat pins Miss Hinrichsen burned her hands badly and her eye brows were singed and portions of her hair was burned off. Dr. Fulton was called and gave the necessary medical attention. Miss Hinrichsen was suffering a good deal of pain last night but her injuries were not of a serious nature and she certainly had a very narrow escape.

WITH THE ATHLETES.

LAFAYETTE, IND., NOV. 22.—With the promise of the biggest crowd ever gathered on Stuart Field, Purdue and Indiana will play their annual football game here tomorrow. The odds are slightly in favor of Purdue.

CHICAGO, NOV. 22.—The Oak Park football team won the Western preparatory school championship today by defeating the Lake Forest academy team, 40 to 0.

CHICAGO, NOV. 22.—The Northwestern University footfall squad is keyed up to its highest pitch for the game against Illinois tomorrow afternoon. With the men in the pink of condition and opposing a team of equal weight, the student body expects a victory against Illinois.

LAWRENCE, Kan., NOV. 22.—On the eve of the big game of the Missouri Valley season—that between Missouri and Kansas universities here tomorrow—both teams rested in quietude.

Neither Kansas nor Missouri coaches have committed themselves to any prediction of the result. Both seem to regard it as a toss-up.

DE MOINES, NOV. 22.—Drake and Ames, Iowa, members of the Missouri Valley conference, will settle the question of their supremacy here tomorrow. Neither team has been going good in the last games and both looked to this battle to make the season a success.

Ames, by winning, will have a clean slate in the conference proper, while success for Drake will give hem three of four of their conference games.

NEW HAVEN, CONN., NOV. 22.—The highest football honors of the year among eastern colleges, if not in the country, await the winner of tomorrow's struggle between Harvard and Yale on Yale field.

Harvard and Yale are the only colleges in the east whose elevens have gone throughout the season, without defeat, except Pennsylvania State. This latter college has met opponents generally regarded as of lesser calibre. Yale was tied by Princeton, but as Harvard defeated the Tigers, a blue victory tomorrow was conceded by experts to rank as an accomplishment of undoubted championship merit.

A good time now to get that suit at Knoles. He has the best for you.

EXPECT LONG TRIAL.

Cincinnati, O., Nov. 22.—That the trial of President John H. Patterson and twenty-nine other officials or former officials of the National Cash Register company of Dayton, Ohio, who are charged in the United States district court here with violating the criminal section of the Sherman anti-trust act will be a long drawn out affair, was foreshadowed today when the examination of the first witness started yesterday failed to end before court adjourned today. The witness was Henry J. James, of Detroit, who told of the National Cash Register company's methods of defeating business rivals.

Chicago, Nov. 22.—A final appeal for the release of Lucile Cameron, formerly secretary to Jack Johnson, negro pugilist, was made by the girl's mother today before Federal Judge Carpenter. The court ordered that the girl be brought into court next Monday morning. At that time Miss Cameron is to make a motion before the court for a reduction of bail from $25,000 to $1,000. The bond, it is said, is to be signed by the girl's mother.

SUFFRAGISTS MEET IN PHILADELPHIA

THE PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT DEFEATED BY WESTERN VOTES.

Mrs. Belmont Was Given Enthusiastic Reception By Convention—Rev. James G. Mythen In Address Advocates Giving Ballot to Women In Effort to Better Political Conditions.

Philadelphia, Nov. 22.—Through the defeat of a constitutional amendment providing that the delegates present from each state or affiliated organization shall cast the full vote to which that state or organization is entitled, provided at least one-fifth of the delegates are present, delegates from the western states are victorious today in the first contest that has developed in the Woman's National Suffrage convention. Practically the entire day was devoted to spirited discussion of the proposed amendment, the western delegates generally supporting Miss Jane Addams in opposing it. Those from a majority of the eastern states upheld President Anna Shaw who favored its adoption. The appearance upon the platform of Mrs. Oliver H. P. Belmont of New York started enthusiastic cheering.

She was introduced as "the woman who felt so much for her sex that she had gone to the night court in New York to furnish bail for the defenseless girls and who is one of the greatest friends to the cause of woman suffrage."

Tonight's meeting was given over exclusively to men advocates of equal rights for women. Jesse Lynch Williams of Illinois, was one of the speakers. The principal address was that of Rev. James G. Mythen of Baltimore.

Labor Struggle Might Come.

Mr. Mythen's subject was was "The Moral Responsibility of the Ballot." Who is to blind" said Mr. Mythen, "as not to see in the wrestling between the laboring class and the capitalistic interests the preliminaries to a struggle that if not stilled in time by wise political readjustment will precipitate us into a titanic internecine strife that will in comparison make the red reign of terror of the French revolution seem a colorless upheaval We deplore the bloody strikes in the mining, milling and industrial trades; we are astounded by the revelation that there are countless underfed toilers in the land where the few are world-widely notorious for their luxurious extravagance; we are sickened when confronted by records that show there are millions living in squalor that would shame the owner of a dog-kennel. But we are penitent for these shameful conditions

"These are crimes against the God and virtue of liberty and they are crimes that must be punished and are being punished. But whom shall we punish. I say look not around to find an erring brother, but let each American citizen whose hand is empowered to cast a ballot, let him look to himself and there place the blame. If there are wrongs in the land we are responsible for them, we are the makers of the laws of the land, we who eexrcise the sovereignty of this nation.

Social Scandals.

"One of the scandals of our civilization is the wholesale murder of the souls and bodies of women to satisfy men whom economic conditions pressure will not allow to marry and live the normal clean life they would prefer to live. To this condition add the enormity of abomination which is revealed when we find that the white-slave traffic has been and is being used in conjunction with the vice of gambling and the dispensing of alcholic poisoning as a means for corrupt politicians to finance their debauchery of the franchise.

"We are confronted by the spectacle of corruption in government that runs riotously from the humble voting precincts of an obscure Ohio county until its trail ends in the very senate chamber. We have read of wholesale prosecutions for graft in many of the largest cities of the land. We have seen the seat of a senator from one of the greatest commonwealths taken from him because it had been purchased by bribery. Thereto add the final note of humiliation that on the same day that Lorimer was unseated the senate resolved itself into a high court of impeachment to try one of our highest judges for malfeasance in office.

"We men ought to demand that women come into the body politic and bring with them the same moral standard that they hold for themselves in the home, in the church, in the hospitals, in the great reform movements that are voiced by the Woman's Christian Temperance union and all other endeavors for righteousness that are always championed by women.

Evil of Two Standards.

"There is hardly a man who would have his mother, his wife or his sister no better than he is himself. The double standard of sex responsibility, like a loathsome disease, has spread its viciousness throughout all departments of private and social life. Politics, the organized life of the nation has not escaped its contamination.

"There must be a reform in the standards of morality beginning in the family circle and thence radiating out to the last circumference of our social structure before politics will become clean. For this reason we want women to help us tear down this false standard which men have allowed themselves to be insulted with. Women alone can do this by demanding that male morals be brought to the tone that men demand of their women and which even more imperatively demand for themselves. We must not expect them to help us accomplish this merely by permitting them politely to urge it. We must give them the right to demand it, to demand it in the name of law and order and decency.

"A nation that cannot see God is a nation doomed; and only the pure in heart shall see God. This then is the chief reason why women should bear their share in the corporate life of the nation, because they have a higher standard of moral righteousness and purer idea of honor than men, and it is these two things we need most in politics.

"Give us them and there will be no corruption in our national and civic life, for the ballot has the power to undo all the wrongs that have come into being because of its debauch or neglect. Unless liberty and justice are dead in the land we can exercise our franchise for the betterment of the people. To do this quires a higher grade of citizenship than we have been content with in the past. That higher grade no American gentleman will deny is to be found in the enfranchisement of our American womanhood."

WAR SITUATION REMRINS UNCHANGEE

tions with the northern part of the empire.

"During the last fortnight all the troops that could conveniently be spared have been drafted toward the Bosnian and Russian frontiehs and the possibility of the southern Slavs proving unreliable in a war against Russia or Servia has been guarded against by a carefully redistribution of troops.

"According to my information, Austria is counting onRumanian support in event of a war with Russia, which is rumored to be massing troops on the line facing Pomerania. The Germans are said to be sending forces into Pomerania."

The correspondent of the Daily Mail at Sarayevo, capital of Bosnia, learns that all the preliminaries of mobilization have been completed and says reinforcements are arriving there in large numbers. The Constantinople correspondent of the same paper says it was reported there Friday night that a battle was proceeding at Gallipoli, in the Vilayet of Adrianople.

From Sofia the correspondent of the "Daily Mail" reports that one Servian and two Greek divisions of troops consisting altogether of 36,000 men are being sent to help the Bulgarians at Tchatalja.

SEEK CAUSE OF DEATH.

Chicago, Nov. 22.—The funeral of Mrs. Mary Regan of Chicago was delayed today while an investigation into the manner of her death was made by the police. As a result a coroner's physician announced that she died from a fractured skull. Her husband, John J. Regan, was arrested. The two quarreled shortly before Mrs. Regan's death and the husband admitted to the police that he slapped his wife, but denied having injured her. Under police guard Regan was permitted to go to the cemetery, where the body was placed in a vault.

ISSUE SPRING STYLE EDICT.

Chicago, Nov. 22.—Straight front, military effect, gowns loose and straight everywhere; harem relegated to the rag bag, skirts perfectly straight, looking like an envelope, narrow skirts to have a clash. These are some of the rules for spring styles laid down by the National Cloak, Suit and Skirt Makers association at the annual convention today. J. P. Hovland, Chicago, was elected president.

PRESIDENT ATTENDS OPERA.

Baltimore, Mr. Nov. 22.—President and Mrs. Taft and party of friends saw the Chicago Opera company's presentation of "Mignon" at the Lyric tonight.

During the intermission the president held quite a reception at his box, being visitd by many persons prominent in the social and business life of the city. Governor Goldsborough was among those who paid their respects.

The presidential party left for Washington immediately after the opera.

While our Mr. Tomlinson was in St. Louis last Tuesday he was fortunate in securing from an Eastern manufacturer a sample line of Shaker Knit all wool sweaters in the $6.00, $8.00 and $10.00 quality which we will sell at $5.00, $6.00 and $7.00.

Healthy Mothers

Women who bear children and remain healthy are those who prepare their systems in advance of baby's coming. Unless the mother aids nature in its pre-natal work the crisis finds her system unequal to the demands made upon it, and she is often left with weakened health or chronic ailments. No remedy is so truly a help to nature as Mother's Friend, and no expectant mother should fail to use it. It relieves the pain and discomfort caused by the strain on the ligaments, makes pliant and elastic those fibres and muscles which nature is expanding, prevents numbness of limbs, and soothes the inflammation of breast glands. The system being thus prepared by Mother's Friend dispels the fear that the crisis may not be safely met. Mother's Friend assures a speedy and complete recovery for the mother, and she is left a healthy woman to enjoy the rearing of her child. Mother'sFriend is sold at drug stores. Write for our free book for expectant mothers which contains much valuable information, and many suggestions of a helpful nature.

HANDS BURNING ITCHING, DISFIGURED

Cracked and Swollen. Could Not Sleep. For 2 Years Nobody Could Cure His Eczema. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Completely Cured.

905 Lowell Place, Chicago, Ill.—"The trouble began by my hands burning and itching and I rubbed and scratched them till one day I saw little red sores coming out. My hands were disfigured and swollen, and troubled me so that I could not sleep. They were cracked and when the small sores broke a white matter would come out. I could not do any hard work; if I did the sores would come out worse.

"For two years nobody could cure my eczema, until one day I thought I would try the Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I used warm water with the Cuticura Soap and after that I put the Cuticura Ointment on my hands twice a day for about five or six months when I was completely cured." (Signed) Sam Marcus, Nov. 28, 1911.

Not only are Cuticura Soap and Ointment most valuable in the treatment of eczemas and other distressing eruptions of skin and scalp, but no other emollients do so much for pimples, blackheads, red, rough skins, itching, scaly scalps, dandruff, dry, thin and falling hair, chapped hands and shapeless nails, nor do it so economically. A single cake of Cuticura Soap (25c.) and box of Cuticura Ointment (50c.) are often sufficient when all else has failed. Sold throughout the world. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address postcard "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

Tender-faced men should use Cuticura Soap Shaving Stick, 25c. Sample free.

TRADE CHANNELS ARE RUNNING FULL

PRICES STRONG IN THE TEXTILE TRADES.

Iron and Steel is Operating Nearly Full Capacity—Current Bookings Continue to Exceed Production.

New York, Nov. 22.—Bradstreets tomorrow will say:

Trade channels are running full, with optimism prodominant and this despite wide-spread evidences that mild weather is a bar to fullest activities in final distribution. Still in this very matter of unreasonably warm weather, apparently the only really current use of complaint it is to be noted that mild climatic conditions are and have been in a high degree favorable to agricultural and transportation interests.

The strength of prices and of demand in the textile trades is a subject of interest. Drygoods are in active demand from mill to retailer although mild weather hampers retail demand for heavy weight goods. Cotton goods are strong and print cloths and broom cottons have advanced in price with commission men. In the yarn trades both cotton and woolen lines are strong and active.

Raw wool of the old clip is in scant supply, in normal demand and firm in price.

Best reports as to jobbing and retail trade come as heretofore, from the west, northwest and southwest.

Operations in the iron and steel lines continue as active, if not more active than heretofore.

Business failures in the United States for the week ending Nov. 21st, were 268 against 260 last week; 293 in the like week of 1911; 212 in 1910; 217 in 1909 and 193 in 1908.

R. G. Dun's Review.

New York, Nov. 22.—R. G. Dun's Weekly Review of Trade tomorrow will say:

Trade in the United States shows further expansion reports from different sections and all statistics of traffic and exchanges speaking loudly of a great activity that in some instances is bounded only by the limit of capacity.

In iron and steel the leading interest is operating at about 95 per cent of capacity. Current bookings continue to exceed production, with railroad requirements forming a large share of the new business. Estimates indicate that more than 2,000,000 tons of rails have already been closed for next year, while Chicago reports the sale of 30,000 tons of car material practically all of which is for delivery during the second half of 1913. Quotations in all lines are firm and premiums are paid with increasing frequency. Purchases of pig iron by steel-making concerns add strength to the market and basic iron for the first quarter is likely to advance. Continued pressure for steel billets and sheet bars is noted and available for prompt shipment.

Open-hearth and Bessemer billets are strong at $28.50 to $29.50, Pittsburgh. Plates and shape mills are covered several months ahead and some producers have virtually withdrawn from the market. In the primary drygoods market there is a large volume of business with prices in practically all instances well maintained. Jobbers of cottongoods are making liberal purchases of domestics and staples for spring. In woolens there is an active demand for overcoatings for immediate delivery and serirable goods brings full market rates. Considerable business has been offered the mills for the next heavy weight seascon but comparatively few orders have been placed because manufacturers are asking higher prices than buyers are willing to pay.

The activity in the shoe trade has now reached close to the point of productive capacity. Leather and hides continue very strong.

BANK CLEARINGS.

New York, Nov. 22.—Bradstreets' bank clearings report or the week ending Nov. 21, shows an aggregate of $3,703,784,000, as against $3,855,490,000, last week and $3,223,730,000 in the corresponding week last year.

MAY ABOLISH SYSTEM OF ROAD COMMISSIONERS

Will Present Bill to Meet Assembly Placing State Dirt Roads Under State and County Supervision.

Springfield, Nov. 22.—Abolishment of the present system of township road commissioners and the placing in the hands of the state general supervision of the construction and maintenance of the public highways of the state, are the principal provisions embodied in a draft of a bill which will be presented to the forty-eighth general assembly. The legislative committee which has been investigating the road question for J. Rice is now at work completing the proposed bill to be presented to the legislature.

The report will include among other items digests of findings made by rural mail carriers. The proposed bill provides for a state highway engineer who will have supervision over county engineers to be elected or appointed in each county, the number of highway commissioners in each township will be reduced from three to one and this commissioner shall have jurisdiction only over dirt roads. He will work under the direction of the county engineers, who in turn will be under the direction of the state engineer. State aid of public highways will be secured through the automobile fund.

Through an error in the bill passed by the last assembly it has not been possible to legally spend any of the money derived from automobile licenses and there is now over a half million dollars lying idle in this fund, which will ultimately go towards improvement of the highways of the state.

The members of the commission are: Homer J. Tice, Greenview, chairman; Logan Hay, Springfield, secretary; John M. Chamberlain, East St. Louis; William H. McLean, Chicago; Albert Isley, Newton; Campbell S. Hearn, Quincy; H. T. Ireland, Washburn; Robert S. Jones, Flora; B. F. Hill, Marion, and B. M. Mitchell, Chicago.

STATE NEWS.

Realized $55 An Acre—W. P. Graham, a Rochelle farmer, got a nice little profit from 10 acres of sweet clover this season. The field was sown in small grain last year, and early this season a ton and a quarter of hay worth $20 a ton at the time, was cut to the acre. He has just threshed out a crop of seed that it is estimated will bring him $30 an acre, making gross receipts of $55 an acre without any cultivation.

Pittsfield Man Buried—The funeral of R. H. Worthington was held at his home in Pittsfield. Mr. Worthington was one of the best known men in Pike county. He was for many years in newspaper work, but of late years had retired from active business. His widow and one son survive. He was a prominent Mason.

Come On, Huskers—Jim Denny, husking corn for Joe Taylor, near Empire, gathered and scooped 161 bushels and 40 pounds, figuring 75 pounds to the bushel, one day last week.

Millikin Wants Simple Spelling—In a meeting of the faculty council of James Millikin university, a resolution was adopted signifying the intention of Millikin to join with other colleges of the state in adopting simplified spelling. A general movement is on foot among the colleges of the United States to adopt simplified spelling and just at this time an effort is being made to get Illinois schools to adopt the form. If two-thirds of the schools in the state support the plan it will be adopted. The plan includes the use of the simplified forms of spelling as adopted by the National Reform Spelling association in all publications, literature and correspondence.

Fish Dying—Many wagon loads of fish are said to be starving in Spring lake near Peoria. The marshes surounding the lake have been recently drained, spoiling the spawning and feeding grounds of the fish. The fish caught have the regular size head, but the body is almost flat, indicating starvation. As there is no way to get the fish out of the district it is predicted that all of them will eventually die.

Addition to Bushnell—The Bushness fair grounds, consisting of 27 acres and 55 adjoining acres, have been purchased by a syndicate of business men who will lay out an addition to the city.

Many Women Employed—There are 154 more men than women employed at the plant of the Elgin National Watch company.

Herrin Girl Is Missing—The 14-year-old daughter of Andrew Carraghan of Herrin has been missing from her home since Monday. The entire county has been scoured in search of her. She told the family a few days ago that she intended to leave and threatened to kill herself. She was dressed in a brown cloak, white cap with red trimming and has light hair. She had $5 in money. It is thought she may have gone to St. Louis.

QUICK RELIEF FOR RHEUMATISM.

George W. Koons, Lawton, Mich., says: "Dr. Detchon's Relief for Rheumatism has given my wife wonderful benefit for rheumatism. She could not lift hand or foot, had to be lifted for two months. She began the use of the remedy and improved rapidly. On Monday she could not move and on Wednesday she got up, dressed herself and walked out for breakfast." Sold by L. P. Allcott, druggist.

THANKSGIVING SERVICE.

Will Be Held Thursday Morning at Centenary Church — Sermon By Rev. J. W. Miller.

Thanksgiving services for the Protesant churches of the city will be held at Centenary church Thursday morning next at 10:30 o'clock. The Ministerial association committee composed of Dr. R. O. Post, Rev. J. W. Miller and J. R. Watt has arranged the order of exercises as follows:

Organ and choir anthem.

GRAND JURY WILL ACT AT ONCE

Information Against Medical Men and Women Will Be Presented to Federal Grand Jury Immediately.

Chicago, Nov. 22.—Information against doctors, medical men and women, arrested in Chicago, in the nation-wide crusade against persons interested in methods tending to race suicide, will be presented to the federal grand jury here at once.

Indictments will be sought against the twelve Chicago defendants, who were released on bonds of $2,000 each and their cases continued for ten days when they were arraigned today before United States Commissioner Mark A. Foote, in order to give the grand jury time to act on the cases. One other arrest is to be made in Chicago in connection with the crusade.

WASHING WITHOUT WATER

Is Like Trying to Get Rid of Dandruff Without Herpicide.

Did you ever see any one trying to wash themselves without soap or water?

If you did what would you say of him?

It is every bit as foolish to try to get rid of Dandruff and to prevent Baldness by feeding the germs which cause it, with Cantharides, Vaseline, Glycerine and similar substances which form the principal ingredients of most so-called Hair Growers.

Newbro's Herpicide is successful because it attacks and kills the parasitic germ which feeds on the hair roots.

It is the original and only genuine scalp germicide manufactured.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

ACCIDENTS AND OTHERWISE

Prominent Woman Killed by Train.—Mrs. William Willard, prominent in state organization of the Woman's Relief Corps, of Springfield, was killed when her automobile was struck by a Rock Island train at Bird's bridge.—Mrs. William.

A Narrow Escape.—On Monday afternoon Alex Koradoski and Geo. Myers barely escapel with their lives as they attempted to put a motorboat through the east section of the Millhurst dam, says the Sandwich Free Press. They had gotten not more than half way through when the rear end of the boat was thrown against the central pier with terrific force by the current and the boat turned turtle. Kordaoski managed to grab hold of the pier and did the seemingly impossible thing of climbing onto it out of the swift current. Myers, who is a good swimmer, managed to get on top of the boat and was carried through, and after the boat made two or three circuits of the eddy he caught the branches of a fallen tree and managed to make the island in safety.

Aged Dundee Man Drowned in Fox.—H. Richards Sr., was drowned in the river near Nolte's livery barn at Dundee. It is thought that he had been standing on the river bank and becoming dizzy had gone down the steep bank and into the river.

Little Child Burned.—Donald Guy three, poked his doll into the stove. Its clothing caught fire and he received injuries which resulted in his death.

Man Killed on Road.—Fred LeLong, a coal miner, of Harrisburg was killed when he fell from the rods of a Big Four train. He was beating his way to Ironton, Ohio.

Struck by Train.—Frank B. Irish, of Wilmington, Ill., was found dead on the Alton tracks. He is supposed to have been struck by a train. The police say Irish was about to join the navy and was "beating" his way home from a visit.

Mr. Hiram Steele, 628 N. 6th St., Terre Haute, Ind., writes: "I came down with a severe case of kidney trouble. I had to get up too often at night, there was pain and much sediment, puffs under my eyes, back pained terribly, and I was dizzy. Foley Kidney Pills cured me quickly, and I feel 100 per cent better. City Drug Store, J. A. Obermeyer.

DOUGHERTY GETS CHANGE OF VENUE.

Peoria, Ill., Nov. 22.—Newton C. Dougherty of Chicago, ex-convict and former president of the National Educators' association, has obtained a change of venue to Mason county in his pending trial on the charge of forgery, committed, it is alleged, when he was superintendent of Peoria schools. Dougherty served six years at Joliet for embezzlement.

THE WOMANS COLLEGE GREAT BUSINESS ASSET

Institution Now Distributes In Jacksonville About $100,000 Per Year—Many Parents Could Not Afford to Send Daughters Elsewhere.

The Woman's College means much to Jacksonville and Morgan county in a business and financial way.

Take an item which is seldom thought of—the saving to Jacksonville and viciniy of what parents would have to spend if they had to send away their daughters for the advantages the college affords. There are at present about 150 Morgan county pupils in the college. It is a conservative estimate that it would cost an average of $150 a year more to send these young women away from home for these advantages. But this item alone means a saving of $22,500 a year. Since President Harker came to the college in 1893, now 19 years, an average of over 100 a year, or about 2,000 young women of Morgan county have had these advantages, and their families have had this saving. And this would amount to $300,000. In the nearly 70 years of the college history, it has saved to the people of this county more than half a million dollars.

But take the present actual income that the college brings to the city. Last year's budget of expenses for the college was $97,915. Of this at least $75,000 was spent in Jacksonville, for it has always been the policy of the college to buy everything possible at home. In addition to this, the 250 students who come from outside spend at least an average of $100 a year personally, or a total of $25,000. This makes a total of $100,000 a year spent by the college in the city. Then there are a number of families who move into the city to educate their daughters, and all their spending comes into Jacksonville.

In the 19 years of President Harker's administration, the college has thus brought to the city from $25,000 the first year to more than $100,000 the last year, or a total of more than a million dollars. Besides this, more than $200,000 has been spent for additional buildings, and the architect, contractors, and workmen have been in almost every case residents of Morgan county. In these years about $200,000 has been brought into the city in direct gifts to the college by friends from outside. Of the total advance in property value of over $300,000, only about $30,000 has been contributed by citizens of Jacksonville and vicinity.

Putting all these things together, the sum total of the financial advantage of the Woman's College to Morgan county will come somewhere near to two million dollars. And in this advantage practically everybody has shared—the laboring man, the merchant of every kind, the farmer, the professional man. Every family has felt the uplift of the school; every church has been greatly helped by it; every school in every district has felt its inspiration; and thousands of homes have been beautified and enriched by it. The college has been a factor in every good cause in this city and county for nearly seventy years.

ADMINISTRATOR'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE.

Estate of Joseph Kilian, deceased.

Public notice is hereby given that by virtue of the order of the County court of Morgan County, Illinois, in the case of the petition of Mary Fitzpatrick Kilian, administratrix of the estate of Joseph Kilian, deceased, vs. George D. Kilian, et al, entered at the November term of said court, I will on Saturday, December 14th, A. D. 1912, at 2 o'clock p. m., at the south door of the court house in Jacksonville, in said county and state ,sell at public auction, the following described real estate, to-wit:

Mrs. J. A. Smith of Concord is visiting her son, Imer, and family.

Mrs. Elmira Wiswell visited several days last week with Miss Millie Wiswell.

Willie Smith and family of Shenandoah, Iowa, came last Sunday for an extended visit with his mother, Mrs. Susan M. Smith.

Alfred Smith and family of Decatur, Ill., came Sunday for a visit with home folks.

Mrs. Newton Moss and son, Clarence, spent Thursday and Friday with friends in the Bend.

Miss Lizzie Conneley and sister of Murrayville spent Saturday and Sunday with Miss Della Goodpasture

Clifford Wiswell lost a hog in a peculiar manner. A branch runs through his pasture which has steep narrow banks. He thinks the hogs were rooting along the edge of the bank when one pushed this one into the branch. It fell in such a manner as to land on its back. He had to hitch a horse to it to get it out.

The J. Bart Johnson Musical company sold to Wall Mason a fine piano which was placed in their home Monday and the same wagon took Mr. Mason's organ to Baxter Hale. We are glad our people are giving their children musical educations.

Mr. and Mrs. D. K. McCarty left last Thursday for Jacksonville, where they expect to visit a week. From there they go to Calhoun, Mo., to visit friends; then on their southern tour. We are loath to give up such folks as D. K. and wife; we need them, and they will be greatly missed in the neighborhood and all church work. We will not try to eulogize on their merits, for we feel that words would fail us. We trust the southern clime will benefit both.

The Grace Chapel Ladies' Aid society met last Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Nellie Braner for the regular monthly meeting. The following program was carried out:

Prayer—Mrs. Lou Dawson.
Song.

Suitable refreshments were served and Mrs. Allen was received into the society.

The society will give a social at Elmer Smith's Thanksgiving evening, to which everyone is welcome.

The first quarterly conference of Concord circuit M. P. church was held at Grace Chapel last Saturday afternoon. All business pertaining to this conference was transacted in a satisfactory manner. Miss Madie Ginder was re-elected conference secretary.

Rev. J. G. Reed filled his regular appointment at the chapel Sunday afternoon at which service Miss Mattie Hegener united with the church.

DECLARE WAR ON COLDS.

A crusade of education which aims "that common colds may become uncommon within the next generation" has been begun by prominent New York physicians. Here is a list of the "don'ts" which the doctors say will prevent the annual visitation of the cold:

"Don't sit in a draughty car."
"Don't sleep in hot rooms."
"Don't avoid the fresh air."
"Don't stuff yourself at meal time. Over-eating reduces your resistance."

To which we would add—when you take a cold get rid of it as quickly as possible. To accomplish that you will find Chamberlain's Cough Remedy most excellent. Sold by all dealers.

W. C. T. U. NOTICE.

The election of officers of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union took place some months ago, but the program was not ready to be announced until this week. An unintentional error was made in the list of officers. Mrs. Charlotte Grey has been treasurer of the union and was re-elected to that office. Miss Tapp is secretary and will act as treasurer pro tem during Mrs. Grey's absence from the city. Mrs. Thomas Harbor will have charge of the musical program March 3.

CULLOM'S GRANDDAUGHTER BECOMES A BRIDE.

Washington, Nov. 22.—A new grandson, or, more correctly speaking, a "grand-son-in-law," was the rather unique present received today by the venerable Senator Shelby M. Cullom on the occasion of his 83d birthday anniversary. The addition to Senator Cullom's family was brought about by the wedding of his granddaughter, Miss Eleanor Cullom Ridgely, daughter of William Barret Ridgely, former comptroller of the currency, and Dr. Henry P. Parker of this city. The date of the wedding was selected by the bride because it was her grandfather's birthday. The ceremony was performed at noon at Senator Cullom's home on Highland Terrace. The bride had her little neice, Eleanor Ridgely Brown, as her only attendant, and Dr. Parker had his brother, John Donaldson Parker, as best man.

ILLINOIS POSSIBILITIES.

Better Methods in Cold Storage—Fortunes in Posssible Increase of Bushels.

Illinois has 55,000 square miles of land—nearly 36,000,000 acres—and we could readily raise enough to feed 20,000,000 people, and yet we fall short of that, and with waning farm fertility, due to soil robbing methods, and relying on that blessed trinity of chance, accident and mistake, we have been slow to take up the problem of conservative farming, which will bring us greater yields and increasing fertility.

All the information as to better methods is in cold storage in agricultural schools, though demonstrated by our best farmers and most of the farmers in Europe, and all that is necessary to make these facts available for practical purposes is money for a messenger and the carrier's car fare to the farms.

Fortunes in Increase.

An average increase of five bushels to the acre would add $175,000,000 annually to the wealth of Illinois, while one bushel per acre increase on all improved farm land in the United States would require 12,500 extra trains, of 50 cars each, to transport.

In the ten years following 1899, production of cereals in this country increased only 1.7 per cent, but the market values were higher in 1909 by 79.8 per cent, the increase in price being 47 times the increase in quantity. An 80 acre corn crop for one year will make the farmer more net money than a 40 bushel average for four years, and one crop properly handled will do better than several farmed in the usual method.

All lines of industry, all methods and men have advanced production, and lowered the cost, except the farmer who is standing still and the stiller he stands the higher the cost of living and the lower his soil fertility. Building up soil fertility will build up yields and pull down the cost of living, giving the farmer more profit on what would cost the consumer less money.

Europe Can "Show Us."

We have as good or better land, tools, soil, brains, etc., as Europe, but we are not properly employing any of these factors. We raise the wheat crop of this country on fifty million acres, with an average of 13.7 bushels to the acre, while our best farmers, and several countries of Europe on the thousand year farm land, average 26 to 40 bushels. As an example, we find Denmark, with a soil originally poor, the model farm country of the world. They raise 38 bushels of wheat to the acre, and all their yields per acre are greater than any in the world. With less than one-third the area of Illinois, and more than one-fifth of it not tillable, and with 2,600,000 population, they feed themselves and annually export $9 per acre for every acre of farm land in Denmark.

For a period of ten years the gross receipts on our farms all together have not been $9 per acre. Our average here in Illinois is only $11, and Iowa, the most uniformly fertile state in the union, $11.40. Denmark buys her wheat and 125,000 tons of fertilizer annually, and has $400,000,000 in her savings bank, a per capita average of $150.

On the Buttered Side.

We call Illinois a great dairy state, yet she does not produce butter for her own people. If the state was closed to the butter shipped in from neighboring states, the people of al her cities, outside of Chicago, plus 260,000 of her rural population, would be deprived of butter for bread. Does that touch your pride on the buttered side

Our farmers, most of them, are not really farmers at all, but miners, mining the fertility of the soil and selling it for little more than the cost of mining—B. F. Harris, for Illinois Farmers' Institute.

A TYPICAL ALFALFA LETTER.

Riverside Farm,
Yellow Springs, Ohio.
Nov. 4, 1912.

Illinois Farmers Institute, Springfield, Ill.

Gentlemen: Please send me Bulletin No. 18, giving method of growing alfalfa.

Spring before last I sold 400 tons of baled alfalfa hay in Akron, Ohio, for $20 a ton. Last spring I sold 300 tons, loose in the mow, not touched by me, for $22 a ton. I will hold this summer's crop at $25 a ton in the mow, unbaled.

My 300 acres of land all in alfalfa brings 5 tons to the acre; 3 cuttings at $22 a ton equals $110 to the acre, showing the land to be worth $2,000 per acre.

Yours Truly,
(Signed) John Bryan.

SERIOUS ERROR IN JACKSONVILLE.

Jacksonville Citizens Will Do Well to Profit by the Following.

Many fatal cases of kidney disease have reached an incurable stage because the patient did not understand the symptoms. Even to day in Jacksonville there are many residents making the serious error. They atribute their mysterious aches and pains to overwork, or worry, perhaps, when all the time their rheumatic pains, backache and bladder irregularities are most probably due to weak and ailing kidneys. If you are ill, if your kidneys are out of order profit by this Jacksonville resident's experience.

Miss Mary Flynn, 830 Beesley avenue, Jacksonville, Ill., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are a splendid remedy and act just as represented. I had sharp pains in the small of my back and also had backache which showed that my kidneys were unnatural. Since I used Doan's Kidney Pills, I have had none of these troubles."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

THEY MAKE YOU FEEL GOOD.

The pleasant purgative effect produced by Chamberlains Tablets and the healthy condition of body and mind which they create make one feel joyful. For sale by all dealers.

BACK FROM ANDERSONVILLE.

Capt. J. M. Swales has returned from Andersonville, Ga., where he and A. H. McCracken of Chicago went to inspect the monument erected by the state of Illinois on the site of the cruel slaughter pen with such a fearful history. The work was accepted and is quite satisfactory. The captain called at the Journal office and showed a photograph of the work which is certainly fine. The captain says he considers it the most attractive of any though not as elaborate as some of the others.

It is of Montello granite, 22 feet long and 4½ feet high and at each end is the same material, life size, is the figure of a soldier. On top of the granite in the center is a bronze group life size representing Columbia shielding her soldiers. The cost of the work was $12,000 and the design of the stone part was by State Architect Zimmerman and of the figures by Charles J. Mulligan of Chicago.

Captain Swales says one offensive sight is the monument of the infamous Wirz, which was erected by the Daughters of the Confederacy, and which is a cheap affair, but in a prominent place, in the town. He says much sectional feeling still exists in the vicinity of Andersonville, especially among the young and rising generation who are taught to look on the Confederacy and all that pertained to it as righteous and the Union cause as the opposite.

STUDENT VOLUNTEERS MEET.

WOMEN, AVOID OPERATIONS

Many Unsuccessful — And Worse Suffering Often Follows. Mrs. Rock's Case A Warning.

The following letter from Mrs. Orville Rock will show how unwise it is for women to submit to the dangers of a surgical operation when often it may be avoided by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. She was four weeks in the hospital and came home suffering worse than before.

Here is her own statement.

Paw Paw, Mich.—"Two years ago I suffered very severely with a displacement. I could not be on my feet for a long time. My physician treated me for several months without much relief and at last sent me to Ann Arbor for an operation. I was there four weeks and came home suffering worse than before. My mother advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I did. Today I am well and strong and do all my own housework. I owe my health to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and advise my friends who are afflicted with any female complaint to try it."—Mrs. ORVILLE ROCK, R. R. No. 5, Paw Paw, Michigan.

If you are ill do not drag along until an operation is necessary, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for women's ills, and has restored the health of thousands of suffering women. Why don't you try it?

YOUTH KILLS STEP MOTHER

Angered Because She Refused to Tell Where Revolvers Were, He Shoots Her and Then Himself.

Hammond, Ind., Nov. 22.—Angered because his step-mother, Mrs. Grace Green Cravens, formerly a Chicago settlement worker, refused to tell him where she had hidden two of his revolvers, Frank Cravens, 19 years old, today fired four bullets into her body. One of the bullets struck a corset steel and drove it into her heart, killing her. Cravens then fired bullets into his own body until he fell to the floor. The youth is said to be dying in St. Margaret's hospital.

The boy's father, Lincoln V. Cravens, formerly was a law partner of Judge J. G. Vach, of the Indiana appellate court. He formerly was an officer in the Indiana Grand Lodge of Masons. He had begun the prosecution of a case in the superior court when told by the police of the shooting.

A house maid was the only witness to the altercation preceding the shooting. Young Cravens lost a leg two years ago in a railroad accident at Thornton, Ill. He was a student of law in Hammond.

WORK OF THE COUNTRY CLUB.

At the annual meeting of the Woman's Country club held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Scott Thursday night Mrs. James Holmes, the secretary told of the work of the year in the following report:

Yes I'm asked to review our club work for the year
That has passed since we last gave you welcome and cheer
At our annual meeting.
Ah, how time is fleeting Tis seventeen years since first we began
Our work in this club, then no wonder we're grayer
But perhaps you will find that our hearts are but gayer.
On reading and study we all seem to thrive
Though dear friends, you may wonder we still are alive
As you list to this writing for I'm but reciting
The subjects we've studied in twelve months of time.
Your pardon I beg for this pargon of rhyme.
Of subjects on travel abroad there's no lack
But we'll start here at home, for we may not get back in time for Thanksgiving.
By the way, bless my heart, it is here that we start
With a well writen paper on Thanksgiving dishes
With receipts for the same for of course no one wishes
To set a poor table on Thanksgiving Day.
Then aside from all this was a day set apart
To study a New England dinner
From Boston baked beans to Boston brown bread
O, dear, the thought of it goes to my head
And to eat it would make me dream dreams when in bed
So we'll just pass it by for we have fish to fry
And to cook every other way under the sun.
We next take up cheese which we learned is nutritious
And quite sure to please if properly cooked.
It's so good to have handy
But here we must stop and learn to make candy
And all about salad and the value of fruit and how
To make bread and to fit a new suit.
We had dainty desserts and frozen desserts
And the best way to launder white skirts and white shirts
We studied the modern inventions all through
And then on another day took up anew
Inventions for housewives and also discussed
The best way to sweep and the best way to dust.
In an aeroplane to our thoughts we gave flight
We studied the ostrich, his beauty and might,
But agreed 'twould be better to keep up the fight
For chickens and turkeys, then come what would
We'd be sure of a little hard cash and some food.
And we didn't forget to learn how to pack eggs
How to act as a hostess and how as a guest,
We talked too of bread, bread making and baking
But I'll hurry right on lest your heads get to aching.
That institute founded by Andrew Carnegie
And the great Booker T. and his noted Tus Keege
We didn't pass by without making them calls.
As we went on to Harvard with its classic old halls
Which we left to look inside of state prison walls,
But we made our escape to look up the Chinese,
Right here in our own land and wait if you
Please till we find out just how
We compare with our grandmas the then and the now.
And down on the program was Mendelsshon's name,
And American artists away up in fame.
And our own matryred presidents
whom we revere
I might tell you about but just listen here
I've forgotten to mention a paper on trees and after
We've studied and talked about these
We took up sacred music, hymns old and hymns new
The next on the program is book review.
We studied New Orleans, away in the south
That city so fair by the great river's mouth.
Went out to New Mexico for Christmas day
Then eastward to Washington far and away.
A peep into Canada opened our eyes
To the progress she'd made then to our surprise
We found that Alaska is making her way
Along toward the front, she is coming each day.
Next over to Holland we went for a while,
Then called on the Irish of Emerald
Isle.
Then to Edinburg, Scotland and great London town,
I wonder if some one's beginning to frown.
Never mind I'm all through, the new programs are out
And next year you shall hear what they were about.

A NIGHT OF TERROR.

Few nights are more terrible than that of a mother looking on her child choking and gasping for breath during an attack of croup, and nothing in the house to relieve it. Many mothers have passed nights of terror in this situation. A little forethought will enable you to avoid all this. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a certain cure for croup and has never been known to fail. Keep it at hand. For sale by all dealers.

CIRCUIT COURT ORDERS.

In the circuit court Friday Judge Thompson entered the following orders.

INTERESTED IN HYDE TRIAL.

New York, Nov. 22.—After a delay of several months, Charles Hiram Hyde, former city chamberlain, is to be called to the bar to answer for the part he is alleged to have played in the great scandal involving the heads of the Carnegie Trust Co., the Joseph G. Robin banking enterprises and the New York political machine. Hyde is under an indictment charging that he accepted a bribe and forced Joseph G. Robin, formerly head of the Northern bank, to aid Joseph B. Reichmann, president of the Carnegie Trust company, and William J. Cummins, executive chairman of the same bank, by making them a loan of $100,000 when Robin had stated that to do so meant ruin to his bank. The work of selecting a jury has commenced in the criminal branch of the supreme court and it is expected to have everything in readiness to begin the Hyde trial before Justice Goff the first of the week.

The former city chamberlain was indicted chiefly on the testimony of Robin. According to Robin, Hyde told him that if he would come through with a loan to the then tottering Carnegie Trust company, he, Hyde, would see that the municipal deposits were increased in Robin's Northern bank. If Robin had refused, according to his story, he was threatened with having the city money then in his bank withdrawal. The bank was in no condition to stand such withdrawals and he had to accede to Hyde's demands, Robin avers.

Hyde's affiliation with Mayor Gaynor, whose administration is very unpopular in some quarters, has brought forth charges of a political plot that have added to the interest with which the trial has long been anticipated. The former city chamberlain has been a law partner of Mayor Gaynor. At the time of the Robin bank failures and the crash of the Carnegie Trust company he mysteriously disappeared, remaining away until the hue and cry over the distribution of the city's funds in the defunct institution was spread from New York city to almost every city in the east. He then returned to the city, alleging illness as the cause of his absence, and was promptly indicted on a charge of swinging the city's millions to benefit his own ends, which constitutes the act of bribery in the eyes of the law.

HAVE COLOR IN YOUR CHEEKS —BE BETTER LOOKING— TRY OLIVE TABLETS.

If your skin is yellow—complexion pallid—tongue coated—appetite poor—a bad taste in your mouth—a lazy, no-good feeling—you should take Olive Tablets.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—a substitute for calomel—were prepared by Dr. Edwards after 17 years of study with his patients.

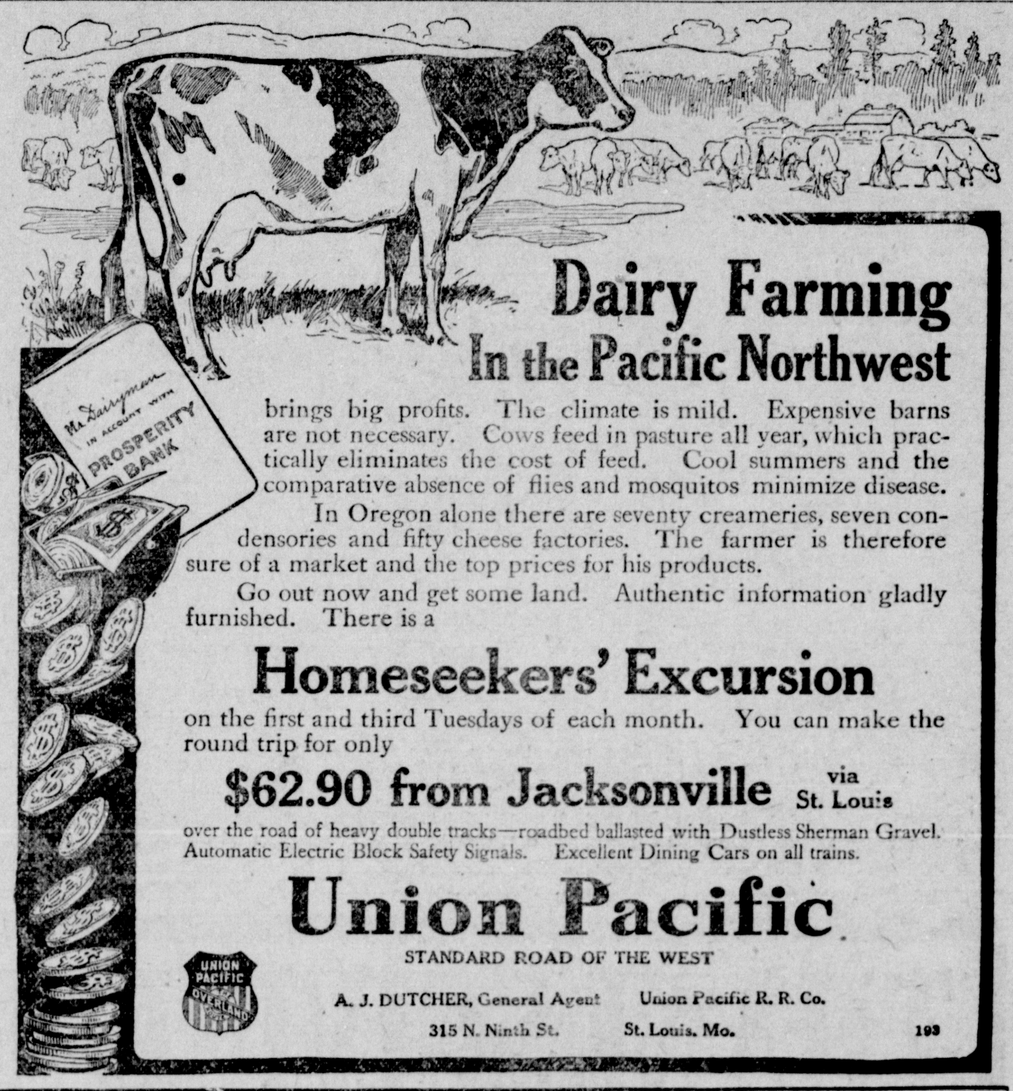

These Olive Tablets oil the bowels—yet have no oily taste. They are a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil.

If you want a clear pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days, you must get at the cause. Olive Tablets act on the liver and bowels like calomel—yet have no dangerous after-effects. They start the bile and cure constipation. That's why millions of boxes are sold annually at 10c and 25c per box.

"Every little Olive Tablet has a movement all its own." Take one or two nightly and note the pleasing results.

COSTLY WAR OF LABOR UNIONS.

Chicago, Nov. 22.—James A. Anderson and Charles Cameron, principals in the war of arson and murder alleged to have been waged by the two rival local unions of the International Brotherhood of Electrical workers, were given a preliminary hearing in the court to day. Many sensational disclosures are expected when the two defendants are tried. According to the police, Anderson and Cameron have admitted that they were delegated by their unions to destroy the rival unions by burning buildings in which the rivals were employed. One business agent was killed in the "war" and buildings aggregating $100,000 in value were burned, it is asserted.

GENERAL MARKET NEWS

WHEAT MARKET CLOSES STEADY

Argentine and Domestic Conditions Prove More Influential Than War News.

(By Associated Press.)

Chicago, Nov. 22.—Argentine and domestic conditions proved more influential than war news today in wheat. As a result, the market, although steady at the close, finished ⅛ to ⅛@¼c off. The outcome in corn was the same as last night to ¼c down, and for oats unchanged to a shade advance. Provisions at the end of the session varied from the level of 24 hours before to 17½@20c decline.

Notwithstanding that fear of some alarming development in connection with the Turkish war kept wheat bears in check, prices throughout the day felt the effect of beneficial rain over South Argentina with a return of fine weather for the beginning of harvest north. Further heaviness resulted from the fact that primary receipts in the United States were more than three times as large as a year ago. May ranged from 89⅜@89⅞ to 90⅜c, with last sales 90⅛, a loss of ⅛@¼c net.

Fine weather enlarging the receipts and improving the grade of corn made that cereal easy. Moderate buying on the part of foreigners acted as an off-set. May fluctuated between 47⅛@47⅜ and 47⅝@47¾c, closing a shade net lower at 47½c.

Oats held steady on account of receipts less than had been looked for. May, after selling 32@32⅛c, closed unchanged 32⅛@32¼c. For the first time this month, hog receipts were larger than a year ago. In consequence, the provision market received a backset. January pork suffered the most, a drop of 17½@20c.

NEW YORK STOCKS.

New York, Nov. 22.—In response to profit-taking sales following yesterday's rise and some selling by London, stocks weakened today. The opening was lower and prices eased off in the morning. Trading fell off to nominal proportions in the last half of the day and prices were virtually at a standstill.

London selling was regarded as the significant development of the day. It was estimated that 20,000 or 30,000 shares were sold here by London, which recently had been repurchasing American securities disposed of following the outbreak of the Balkan war. This selling was attributed in part to uneasiness over the rejection by the Turkish government of the peace terms proposed by the Balkan allies. Another explanation was that the selling was London's reply to the engagement of gold there for this country, and was representative of the feeling abroad that the situation had not cleared sufficiently to justify Europe in acquiescing in a reduction of its gold supplies. A further engagement of $500,000 gold was announced today. London's disposition to unload American stocks was thought to have lessened the chances of a large inflow of gold at this time.

For a time today there was some buying of stocks by traders who took the ground that strong influences, aligned on the bull side, were responsible for yesterday's upturn. This buying was more than offset, however, by liquidating sales and London selling, the latter part being the most effective in Union Pacific, Reading and Amalgamated. Losses were restricted to fractions in most cases. Canadian Pacific declined two points.

A loss of cash to the banks on the week's transactions was indicated. Known movements of money for the week showed a cash loss of about $1,000,000.

TELLS VIVID STORY OF THE CIVIL WAR

J. C. VERTREES TOOK PART IN BATTLE AT MISSIONARY RIDGE.

After Fifty Years Recalls Incidents of That Famous Conflict—Lent Rifle to Youthful Rebel Who Fired at Own Captain in Retreat.

Though it is so long since the war was over there are yet many left of the brave men who risked their lives for their country; who endured hardships and privations almost beyond belief; who went cold and hungery, marched wearily through mud and rain and in battle bravely faced the enemy in a hail of shot and shell ready to lay down their lives that "government of the people, for the people and by the people might not perish from the earth."

One of the conspicuous examples of these survivors is J. C. Vertrees of Chambersburg, Pike County. The gentleman has been in the city taking medical treatment and was introduced to the writer by Dr. C. M. Vertrees of Murrayville, a cousin of the man from Pike and who gave a pointer regarding the military record of the latter. When requested to tell something of his story the gentleman was quite unwilling insisting that he had done nothing especially noteworthy but the doctor said his cousin was in the storming party at Missionary Ridge anyhow and so the Journal man begged for an interview which was accorded.

Mr. Vertrees was a sergeant in Co. C. 27th Ill. Infantry, a regiment which went through a great amount of hardships and saw a deal of hard fighting in all of which Sergeant Vertrees had a full part. The colonels of the regiment were N. B. Buford of Rock Island and he was promoted to the rank of brigadier general and was followed by F. A. Harrington who died of wounds received at the battle of Stone River. Lieutenant Colonels were J. B. Miles of Miles Station and Wm. A. Schmitt of Quincy. The captains of Co. C were Samuel Park of Perry, L. G. Allen of Perry and L. P. Williams of Perry. Allen didn't stand very high with the men and failed to serve very long. Andrew Sides was promoted from a second lieutenant to first and W. P. Browning from orderly to a second lieutenant.

The historian of the regiment says it was mustered in at Camp Butler, August 10, 1861 and ordered into camp at Jacksonville as part of Brigadier General McClernand's brigade Nov. 7th of the same year it was in the battle of Belmont, Mo. where "under the inspiration of its brave colonel it drove, in the midst of a perfect hail of bullets and cannister, the enemy from his camp in utter rout capturing two brass field pieces which it turned upon the retreating enemy. It lost severly in the engagement and was the last regiment to leave the field after the enemy had been reinforced from Columbus."

Whole pages similiar to this might be truthfully written regarding the organization but it is with the storming of Missionary Ridge that the writer is especially concerned in the story of Sergt. Vertrees. It was only by repeated questions that the gentleman told his story and what he said only will be used as nearly as possible as he told it.

"Our regiment was in the fearful battle of Chickamaugua and we lost heavily. I can never forget the bravery of the rebels at that place and at most of the others where we met them. At one time an attacking column came right at us and we held fire till they were near and all let them have it and almost every man in their first column fell. Sometimes we were shifting on foot and sometimes lying down. I remember at one time I shifted my position and had hardly done so when a shell dropped right where I was lying. After the battle of Chickamaugua we fell back to Chattanooga where we nearly starved before supplies could be gotten to us. The rebels held Lookout Mountain and Missionary Ridge and the manner in which Gen. Hooker's men took the former is well known.

"One day after Gen. Grant had taken command he had managed to get some bacon and issued each one a piece about as large as one's hand and told us we would better keep it till the next day to help us endure the strain that would be on us and 'save your bacon' became a byword in the command. We were too hungery to regard the suggestion and ate the meat generally as soon as it was received.

"The rebels had two lines of infantry at the foot of Missionary Ridge and on top of it their batterles were placed and the position seemed impregnable. The men at the base of the ridge were largely conscripts and we were ordered to charge them. The 11th Missouri was next to our regiment and we went at them. They fired hard and lots of our men went down. One named John W. Wyth right in front of me received a bullet through his head and we had to walk over him as we charged. The officers of the rebels were cowards in many cases and turned and ran up the hill toward the batteries where they thought they would be safe and we got some of them as they went.

"One young fellow whom we captured begged me to let him take my gun and take off his captain whom he called by a name I can't repeat in polite society. Finally I acceded and he took the gun and soon the retreating captain was rolling down the hill with a bullet through him and the boy got one or two more.

"Then came the memorable charge up that hill and it was a sight never to be forgotten. I have told that Grant almost or quite shed tears fearing every one of us would be killed. It was a fearful climb, over trees and brush which had been placed to make an approach difficult. On and on we went all the time getting higher and higher and having this advantage that owing to our position and that of the rebel guns they couldn't hit us. Our company had no captain, the second lieutenant lay wounded and the first who was in command became separated from the company but on and on we went. Occasionally the rebels would lower their guns and manage to get some of us but we went on and on till the summit was reached and still panting with the terrible exertion we had no time to rest.

"The rebls had placed large logs on the crest of the hill with space under them for firing and the place seemed impregnable but with shouts and cheers we climbed the logs and went for them. As we reached the top of the hill I looked about and missing the lieutenants learned that the second was laid out and the first one somehow separated, so I informally took command and with a shout and hurrah we mounted the logs in front of the rebel battaries and they fled and we after them in hot haste. We got a number of them as they ran and as I was hurrying down the hill I came across a poor fellow badly wounded in the groin and begging piteously for a drink. I had strapped my canteen to my body so as to keep it from clattering and couldn't get it loose so I lay down on the ground by the poor fellow and let him take a big drink from my canteen and left him blessing me for what I had given him as he lay seemingly dying.

"We went as far as we could and then halted and returned taking possession of the battaries we had captured. I don't know yet how we did it and can never tell. The inspiration seemed to come all at once all along the line with no orders from anyone. We were flushed with our success with the lines at the foot of the hill and all at once a shout arose and up we went.

"I have heard it said that when Gen. Grant saw us climbing up that ridge he asked impatiently who had ordered that charge but no one could tell him but we were never disciplined for doing it without a command from any officer.

"A few years ago I was spending the winter in the south with my wife when a friend at the hotel bantered me to go to Mobile during a Confederate reunion and I went. I entered the building where the veterans were registering as they arrived and as a number were ahead waiting their turn I noticed a man standing in line leaning a little to one side and holding his hand on a part of his body which evidently was diseased or had been wounded.

Stepping up to him I said, "You appear to have been badly wounded in some engagement.'

'I was indeed. It was at missionary Ridge where a Yankee bullet hit me right here and pretty nearly laid me out. I can't ever forget that day for it was a Yankee soldier who saved my life.'

'How did he do that?'

"'I was lying in agony dying for a drink without which my days would have been ended when a blue coat came along with his canteen strapped to his side and being unable to loosen it he lay down beside me and gave me a good drink.'

"'What part of the command were you in?'

"'And I was on the extreme right of our command and was the one who gave you that drink.'

"I thought for awhile the man would go wild. He hugged me and fell all over mee, calling me all sorts of pleasant names and asking what in the world he could do for me. He said he was finally carried off the field and being possessed of a strong constitution had recovered and had ever since wished he could find me to tell me how I had saved his life. I could hardly get time to speak or say a word so intent was he on caressing me and telling what I had done for him.

"I joined the line and finally reached the officer and gave my company and regiment when the official informed me it was not in order there but a clerk who had heard the conversation between my Missionary Ridge friend and myself told the officer the facts when he assured me the best in the state of Alabama was at my command all they could do for me would be a pleasure. I was invited to join an excursion party free of expense and received all sorts of favors."

Mr. Vertrees has been here taking medical treatment for stomach trouble and the only wonder is that such men who went through such hardships have any stomachs at all. He went home releived and let us fervently hope he will suffer no more.

TO DECIDE RIGHT OF CITIZENSHIP.

Question Arises As to Whether Alien Coming to State Before Constitution Was Adopted Is Legally a Citizen.

Elgin, Ill., Nov. 22.—Upon a decision to be handed down Monday by Circuit Judge Shusser, is said to depend the right to citizenship of many residents of Illinois. The decision is to be on the question:

"Is an alien who came to Illinois previous to 1848, when the state constitution was adopted, legally a citizen without being naturalized?"

Application today of Samuel Behm, a Virgil, Ill., farmer for his naturalization papers raised the question. George Carlson, one of Behm's witnesses, said he had never been naturalized, having been a resident of Illinois when the constitution was adopted.

MISSOURI CHOICE OVER KANSAS

Lawrence, Kas., Nov. 22.—With both teams reported in good condition interest throughout Kansas and Missouri centers on tomorrow's football game between the Kansas and Missouri universities. The game is to be played here and the city is already filling with the followers of both teams. Nearly 15,000 tickets for the game have been sold. Betting slightly favors the Missourians, chiefly because of the splendid showing the Tigers have made this season.

DANIEL HASKELL SEVERELY BURNED

Well Known Resident of Exeter Falls Into Fire While Burning Brush—Physicians Say he Cannot Live.

Daniel Haskell, who resides two miles southeast of Exeter, was frightfully burned Friday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock while engaged in burning some brush on his farm. He had an attack of heart failure and plunged into the brush and only his cries that attracted the attention of two men in an opposite field, saved him from being burned to death.

For some time Mr. Haskell has been subject to attacks of heart failure. After dinner yesterday he went out into the field to burn some brush and had piled a big heap and set it on fire. It was while fixing the fire that he fell forward into the pile. He had barely enough strength to pull himself half way out and give a loud shout. Two neighbors in the field adjoining heard his cries and ran to his assistance.

The injured man was carried into his home, where Dr. J. H. Stewart Sr., and Dr. J. H. Stewart Jr., were called. A hasty examination showed that the man was burned over his entire body. In some places his flesh was burned to a crips. His long beard and the hair of his head was burned completely off. He has never regained consciousness since the accident and no hopes are held out for his recovery, his death being expected hourly.

Mr. Haskell is about 70 years of age and the family is highly regarded in that community. He is a veteran of the civil war and a well to do farmer. About two years ago Mr. Haskell suffered the loss of his wife. He has two sons, Fritz Haskell at home and Mrs. Dovie Burrus of Bluffs, also one brother, John, residing in the west.

POLITICAL NOTES

Massachusetts has elected a Democratic lieutenant governor for the first time.

Governor George N. Donaghey of Arkansas aspires to a seat in the United States senate.

In the recent election the Socialist vote in Kansas exceeded 30,000, about 12,000 more than ever before.

Barratt O'Hara, lieutenant-governor elect of Illinois, is one of the youngest men ever elected to that office in the United States.

In the defeat of William B. Wilson of the 15th Pennsylvania district organized labor will lose one of its ablest representatives in congress.

Circuit Judge John W. Mason, for several years Republican national committeemen for West Virginia, seeks to succeed Clarence W. Watson in the United States senate.

Frank O'Hair, who is to succeed "Uncle Joe" Cannon in the house was born in a log cabin in Edgar county, Illinois, and spent his boyhood on a farm.

Staunton, Va., the place of Governor Wilson's birth, is planning to make the president-elect's home coming jubilee next month one of the biggest days in the state's history.

Hugh C. Wallace of the state of Washington, who is mentioned for the post of postmaster general in President Wilson's cabinet, is a son-in-law of the late Chief Justice Melville W. Fuller.

Samuel V. Stewart, whom the Democrats of Montana have elected governor, was born in Ohio forty years ago, was educated in the University of Kansas and went to Montana and began the practice of law fourteen years ago.

Congressman Morris Sheppard, selelected to succeed Joseph W. Bailey as United States senator from Texas, worked as a night watchman in the state capitol at Austin to earn the money for his expenses at college.

Josephus Daniels, Democratic national committeeman for North Carolina and well known as the publisher of the Raleigh News and Observer, is picked by some politicians as a likely choice for the post of postmaster general in the Wilson cabinet.

Louis B. Hanna, governor-elect of North Dakota, entered congress in 1909, having previously served in both houses of the state legislature. Mr. Hanna was born in Pittsburg, but was one of the pioneer settlers of the Dakotas. He began as a lumber merchant, but later became a banker and purchased large land holdings.

Before the election of November 5 women could vote in six states, having a total of 37 electoral votes, as follows: California, 13; Colorado, 6; Washington, 7; Idaho, 4; Utah, 4; and Wyoming, 3. Their recent victories give women a choice in the allotment of 33 more electoral votes—Michigan, 15; Kansas, 10; Oregon, 5, and Arizona, 3.

END OF COAL STRIKE IN SIGHT

Charleston, W. Va., Nov. 22.—What is believed to forecast the end of the great coal strike in the Kanawah coal fields of West Virginia was announced today in a signed agreement between the union miners and the officials of the National Bituminous Coal and Coke company. The agreement practically recognizes the union, provides for an increase of about 21 per cent in wages, reduces tonnage, permits miners to organize, provides for a nine hour work day and gives the men now on strike preference if they should desire to return to work.

KILLS WIFE AND SUICIDES.

Terre Haute, Ind., Nov. 22.—George Sage, a retired business man of this city, this afternoon killed his wife by cutting her throat with a butcher knife and then attempting suicide with the same weapon. He will die.

Sage recently retired from business on account of failing health and had been under the care of physicians. He was a member of a well known family.

SOUTH SIDE CIRCLE SPENDS HAPPY TIME

Delightful Gathering Last Night at the Home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Gillham—Unique Program Given.

One of the most delightful gathering of the members of the South Side circle was held Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Gillham on West State street. It was a special meeting when the men folk were invited and their was a large attendance. The house was beautifully decorated, in white, pink and yellow chrysanthemums. In the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. Gillham, Mrs. Thomas Buckthorpe, Mrs. J. J. Reeve and Mrs. Edward F. Leonard. The address of welcome was by the president, Mrs. Thomas Buckthrope.

The program was humorous throughout and greatly enjoyed by the guests. The Infamous quartet was composed of Mrs. E. F. Leonard, Mrs. Julian Hall, Mrs. E. C. Carpenter and Mrs. Helen Marsh. These ladies also composed the program committee.

The burlesque orchestra consisted of Dr. W. O. Wait, Julian Hall, Thomas Buckthorpe, W. W. Gillham, Charles F. Ehnie, Dr. E. F. Leonard, Mrs. Joseph Jackson, Mrs. Helen Marsh, Mrs. Leonard and Mrs. Carpenter.

The guests were divided up into four colleges the leader of each college being as follows: Harvard, Dr. E. F. Leonard; Yale, Julian Hall; Illinois college, Herman Weber; Chicago university, W. W. Gillham. The races included 30-yard dash, shot put, hammer throw, relay race and paper race. The honors went to Chicago university.

Mrs. Morrow of White Hall and Mrs. E. C. Carpenter gave two instrumental duets.

An observation test afforded no little amusement. Mrs. Ollie Parker and Mrs. W. O. Wait were the leaders. The sides were compelled to answer questions of current events and the honors were so equally divided that neither side was awarded first place.

At the close of the program an elegant four course luncheon was served and in every way the occasion was one long to be remembered.

Assistant editors—Warren Hall, Ernest Berry, Genevieve Clark.
Business managers—Robbins Russel and John Widenham.

DR. BLACK DISCUSSES THEME ON EUGENICS

Made Address Before Congregational Brotherhood Friday—Emphasized the Importance of Race Betterment.

The regular meeting of the Brotherhood of the Congregational church took place last evening in the church parlors where a fine supper was served, the especial committee in charge being Messrs. E. Spink, W. D. Wood and Geo. L. Merrill, assisted by J. Allerton Palmer. The supper was simply fine and elicited great praise from all present and a hearty vote of thanks.

At the close of this part of the program all adjourned to the lecture room below where Dr. Carl E. Black had hung a number of charts illustrating the theme of a very able important as well as timely address on the sugject of eugenics.

Of this fine effort only a brief outline is attempted and that by a layman of course not able to interpret such a theme very intelligently and accurately.

Eugenics means in brief race breeding. We all have traits, mental, physical and moral and we inherit them as we inherit size, color and physical characteristics and it is well that we give more careful attention to this all important subject remembering that as we receive traits from our ancestors we transmit them to our posterity.

Savages and animals care for their offspring but do not care for their ancestry or posterity. Francis Galton of England was the first man to pay great attention to this subject and his efforts have been of great benefit in arousing the attention of mankind in an all important subject. Galton defines eugenics as the science which deals with what effects racial qualities in future generations. Chas. Davenport of the Carnegie institute says it is that which intends to improve the human race by better breeding.

There are two great factors which go to make up the quality of a man: Inheritance from ancestors and environment. In life there are two important factors, morals and health, mental and physical. The farmer, the stock grower, the horticulturist all recognize the value of culture and breeding. By them we have secured the race horse, the valuable cattle for dairy and beef, the wonderful improvement in grain, flowers and vegetables; why may we not apply the same principles to the improvement of the human race? We most carefully preserve the pedigrees of our valuable live stock but are indifferent to that of the human race.

More than half the human race practices polygamy and it is suppressed only by the most stringent laws. Marriage should be based on heredity. If communities gave as much attention to race improvement as to cattle breeding, vast improvement in the quality of the people would result.

There are in the world 1,500,000,000 inhabitants.

Born each year 50,000,000.

Die first year of their lives 10,000,000.

Die before 25 years old 25,000,000.

In United States there are 90,000,000.

Born annually 2,500,000.

Die first year 1,200,000.

Die before 23 years, 1,250,000.

Sick in institutions 5,000.

Average deaths annually 225,000.

Insane in land 450,000.

Paupers 100,000.

In Jacksonville there were 364 deaths in 1910 or 18.2 per thousand.

In 300 years the average length of life has increased double.

There are in the United States feeble minded 150,000 and of these only 14,000 are in institutions. An eminent authority defines a feeble minded person as one unable to avoid the dangers of life. The great effort of society now should tend to stop the causes of degeneracy. Family traits are perpetuated with alarming regularity and multitude.

(The doctor referred to a number of charts most ably illustrating the facts to which he alluded.)

One family showed that a grandmother had been of feeble mind. Her children were normal but her grandchildren were afflicted as she was. Another chart shows how feeble mindedness and evil character are perpetuated.

The Jukes family of New York is a remarkable illustration of this fact. A girl of feeble intellect went to work for a family and was obliged to stop and go to a hospital where she became the mother of a child. The girl's father was intemperate and the mother feeble minded. She went to work for another family and again it was found she had gone wrong and the people for whom she worker being good and wise insisted that the father of the child should marry the girl. He was intemperate and epileptic but the marriage was consummated. Another child was born and they went to work for a farmer and another child came and the employer was the father. A divorce was secured from the first husband and the woman married the farmer. Other children were born to be public charges and it was found that the woman had four brothers who were feeble minded and evil and investigation showed that the evil came primarily from great-great-grandparents. The family and descendants cost the state an enormous sum.

From one man were traced criminals and public charges that cost the state $1,200,000. Cases like this some not so bad and some worse may be mentioned in great numbers and the result is disastrous to society.

On the other hand take the family tree of Noah Webster and note the marvelous ability and usefulness of the descendants. Some excelled in literature some in mechanics and some in other directions. One family excelled in mechanics and several generations developed capable boat builders. Elizabeth Tuttle married M. R. Edwards and their son Timothy was pastor of one church 59 years. He was the father of Jonathan Edwards, the ancestor of many of the most illustrious men the world has known.

The study of eugenics is but in its infancy. Society has paid far too little attention to it. For its own protection and for the welfare of future generations the subject must have more attention; marriage must be more carefully guarded and the breeding of paupers, feeble minded, criminals and other charges on society restricted.

A hearty vote of thanks was tendered the doctor for his able address.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

About thirty young people were very pleasantly entertained by Miss Sadye Lott Thursday evening at her home on North Main street. Many unique and amusing games were introduced into which everyone present entered most cheerfully. Both vocal and instrumental music was a feature of the evening. Late in the evening dainty refreshments were served. Before the guests departed each noted that the evening had been one of keen pleasure.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ferreira entertained members of council 444 Knights and Ladies of Security Wednesday evening at their home 822 East Lafayette avenue. There was a large attendance of the members and the evening was delightfully spent with games and music. The excellent refreshments served added greatly to the pleasure of the occasion.

The engagement of Miss Edna Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Scott and Mr. Herbert Mawson, son of the late Abel Mawson was announced at a party given Thursday afternoon at the home of Miss Maude Sturdy of the Lynnville neighborhood. The wedding will take place Thanksgiving day.

The house was prettily decorated with green and white carnations and the announcement was made by the use of carnations, to which were attached little hearts tied with dainty ribbons, bearing the initials of the young people and the time of the wedding. Each guest was presented a carnation. In the contests of the afternoon both prizes were won by Miss Grace Potter. Elaborate refreshments were served and the affair was one of keen enjoyment.

The guest list included Misses Cora Megginson, Edna Scott, Mrs. Henry Richardson, Mrs. Fred Ranson, Bessie and Bertha Daggett, Grace Potter, Sarah, Grace and Bessie Megginson, Carrie Gibbs, Lulu Mawson, Stella and Esther Vasey.

NORMAL U. WILL BE OPPONENT TODAY

Illinois College Will Try for Gridiron Honors Today Against Northern School.

What promises to be an exciting game of football between college teams will take place this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock on Illinois field, when Illinois college and Normal university meet.

The Normal team is heavy and in Courtwright, quarter back, the visitors have a strong man, a good open field runner, and expert in the use of the forward pass. Illinois men are in good shape. Capt. Ross and his squad of players known that they will have to play hard football to win but they feel that they can turn the trick. Larson will act as referee.

Coach Harmon has announced the following lineup:

Left tackle—Russel, Kingsley.
Left guard—Lukeman.
Center—Tandy.
Right guard—Holmes.
Right tackle—Ross (Capt.)
Right end—Pierce, Karch.
Quarter back—Stewart, Gary.
Left half—Sorrells, Furr.
Right half—Alford, Jaccard.
Full back—Darragh, Dugger.

EXAMINING BLIND PUPILS.

Members of Committee Working for Universal Type System for the Blind Visit Local School.

Mrs. E. H. Fowler and Miss L. P. Howard, both of Boston, Mass., who have been visiting at the local school for the blind left Friday morning for Indianapolis, Ind. These two ladies are representatives of the American Association of Workers for the Blind, which is a national organization, and are also members of a committee appointed by this association which is investigating the different systems of type used for the blind.

At present there are in general use among the blind and in institutions for the education of blind children, two systems of type, one known as the American Braille and the other, the New York Point. These systems are entirely different and persons who learn to read under one system cannot corrspond with those who learn from the other. This in itself is a great hardship to people afflicted from blindness, but aside from this the expense of printing literature and text books is about double what it would be if one system were used.

The committee which was appointed by the association of workers for the blind is visiting the different institutions for the blind in the country and examining 500 readers under each system, and making changes for the purpose of determining which is more efficient. When this point is determined the work of having the better system used all over the country and excluding all other systems, will be taken up. Mr. Woolston, superintendent of the local State School for the Blind has invited the association to hold its biennial meeting in this city next year and the sessions will convene in June. It is at this time that the report of the committee will be heard and the system of type will be determined on.

THE BIRTH RECORD.

The name of Mr. and Mrs. Earl T. Wiswell's new daughter is Virginia Ellen. The name was incorrectly stated yesterday.

MORTUARY

Goodpasture.

The funeral of Samuel Goodpasture was held Friday at 11 o'clock a. m. from the family residence, conducted by Rev. J. G. Reed pastor of the M. P. church, assisted by Rev. Thomas F. Shaw of the Christian church. The burial service of the Odd Fellows was used at the grave, which made a very impressive service. Rev. Mr. Shaw read the scripture lesson and made an able prayer. Rev. J. G. Reed preached a short and very appropriate sermon. The singing was conducted by the following persons Miss Eva Abernathy, Mrs. Grace Star, Mr. and Mrs. George Lewis, Spencer and Elmer Smith, Ernest Sanders and Grace Reed. They sang the following songs in a tender and acceptable manner: "Tis Heaven to Me"; "The Lord Knoweth Why"; "It is Well With My Soul". At the grave they sang Rock of Ages, in the order of the service and Shall We Gather at the River. The bearers were Walter Beddingfield, John Yeck, Edward Stanley, Ora Ham, John Gershaw, Tenry Williamson.

Interment was made in Concord cemetery. Many beautiful flowers covered the casket and many friends of the family spoke kind words of sympathy to those who were left to mourn.

Beecraft.

Miss Amanda Beecraft died Friday morning at 5:15 o'clock at her residence, 1527 South Main street, after an illness with pneumonia.

Miss Beecraft was a daughter of Aquilla and Ann L. Beecraft and was born in Bourbon county, Kentucky, December 16, 1832. She is survived by one brother, James Beecraft of Arkansas, and two sisters, Mrs. Harriet McDaniels and Miss Jennie Beecraft of this city. Miss Beecraft was an active member of Brooklyn church and always took an active interest in the work of the church. She was also a member of the Ladies' Aid society of that organization and during her long residence in this city made a large circle of friends who admired her for her many womanly traits of character.

Funeral services will be held at the family residence, 1527 South Main street, Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and owing to severe illness in the family the services will be private. Relatives and immediate friends are expected to attend. Interment will be made in Diamond Grove cemetery.

BLISS ESTATE VALUABLE.

New York, Nov. 22.—The value of the estate of the late C. N. Bliss, secretary of the interior under President McKinley and treasurer of the Republican national committee in 1904, is $4,851,854, according to the appraisal made to ascertain the amount due to the state under the tax inheritance law. The bulk of the estate is divided equally among the widow, son and daughter.

The verdict of the people; Knoles' clothing is good and cheap.

HELD BOX SOCIAL.

A box social was held at the Maple Grove school south of the city Friday evening. There was a good attendance and the boxes, which were auctioned off by Mr. Hartman brought good prices. The highest price paid for a box was $2.25. Miss Anna Berry received the prize for having the prettiest box. A program of recitation and musical numbers was given and in every way the affair was a big success.

All kinds of desirable furnishing goods; superior quality; Knoles.

FUNERAL NOTICE.

Funeral services for Llewellyn Davis will be held Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock at Salem church in charge of Rev. W. M. Carter. Interment will be made in Yatesville cemetery.

DONATION DAY GIFTS.

Donation day at the Old People's home brought liberal gifts and a great many visitors. Still other gifts were received Friday and other persons telephoned about donations which are still to be sent in. The Old Peoples home is an enterprise wholly worthy of support and the people of Jacksonville are generous in relations to it.

MEETINGS OF I. C. SOCIETIES

Sigma Pi and Phi Alpha Literary Organization Hold Regular Sessions—Freshmen of Both Societies to Hold Debate.

The regular meetings of the literary societies of Illinois college were held Friday evening. The challenge made by the Freshmen of Sigma Pi society for a debate against the Freshmen of Phi Alpha society was accepted by the latter. Phi Alpha chose their debaters last evening as follows: Messrs. Kimmel, Cohn, Keplinger, with Justus as alternate. Sigma Pi has not as yet chose their representatives. The debate will be held before Christmas and three men will be selected from the six to represent the Freshmen class against a team representing the Freshmen class of Bradley Polytechnic Institute of Peoria.

Sigma Pi Society.

Sigma Pi society omitted the debate last night on account of so many of the members on the football team and have to play in the game today against Normal university. The debate and business session will be held Wednesday night, Nov. 27. The program follows:

Declaimers—Dugger, "Preston S. Brooks in defense of his attack on Sumner;" Bullard, "Hugo in his defense of his son."

Readers—Ross, "Master Bilderback returns to school;" Spray, "In defense of Stiff Arm Bill."

Essayists—Dixon, "Bobby Burns and his power;" Widenham, "Biography of William Wilberforce."

Orator—Russel, "Corruption in the Judiciary."

Extemporizer—Dixon, "Present conditions in Mexico."

Phi Alpha Society.

The following program was given by Phi Alpha society:

Essayists—Humphrey, "Conservation of the Forests; E. Berry, "The Winner of the Noble Prize."

Declamations—White, "For Dear Old Yale;" Heath, "The Pretext of the Rebellion;" Bracewell, "The Trial of John Val Jean."

Orator—Turl, "The Softening Influence of the Christian Faith."

Reader—Chester Berry, "The Imaginary Invalid."

Extemporizer—Hall, "Phi Alpha Oratory."

Debate—Resolved, That the federal government should own and operate the railroads of the United States. Affirmative, Keplinger, Cohn and Gustafson; negative, Kimmel, Manger and Justus. No decision was given in the debate but from the list the following were chosen as the Freshmen debating team, Kimmel, Cohn, Keplinger, with Justus as alternate.

You will be pleased if you get a suit of clothes of Knoles.
